

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT EDWARD McGOWAN above, were married July 17, at 4 p.m. at St. Lawrence O'Toole Church in Oakland, Calif. The bride, Ina Lee Heinbach, is the daughter of Mrs. William C. Heinbach and the late Mr. Heinbach of Dillard. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lydia Vecchio of Oakland, Calif.

The marriage of Miss Ina Lee Heinbach, daughter of Mrs. William C. Heinbach and the late Mr. Heinbach of Dillard, and Robert Edward McGowan, son of Mrs. Lydia Vecchio of Oakland, Calif., took place Sunday, the seventeenth of July at four o'clock in the afternoon at the St. Lawrence O'Toole church in Oakland, Calif.

The bride, given in marriage by Willard Laurence, a family friend of Dillard, was a picture of exquisite loveliness in her gown of white tulle. The tight-fitted bodice had five tiny rows of tulle rouching sweeping from the back to front in a V shape effect. The romantic mitts, elbow length, were trimmed in rows of tulle rouching to match the neckline trim. Dainty rosettes of satin trimmed the neckline and mitts. The full length bouffant skirt with spaced rows of tulle rouching was over tiered nylon-net. Her French illusion veil fell from a beaded orange blossom tiara. She carried a white Bible, a gift from her mother, which was topped with a white orchid with satin streamers and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Dan Laurence, her sister, who was matron of honor; and Miss Betty Jo Matthews of Roseburg, bridesmaid. They wore matching waltz-length gowns of sky-blue tulle and matching head pieces, and carried nosegays of white carnations with blue streamers.

The flower girls were Linda and Stephanie Barr of San Mateo, Calif., cousins of the bridegroom, wearing dainty long pink silk gowns with matching floral headbands. The ringbearer was five-year-old Joe Laurence of Dillard, nephew of the bride-elect. The bridegroom was attended by Ernest Genasci as best man. The ushers were Warren Heinbach, brother of the bride-elect; Ernest Alves and Tommy Genasci.

The altar was beautiful with bouquets of white gladioli, white stock and calla lilies. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the priest of the St.

Lawrence O'Toole Church. Music was furnished by the church organist with Miss Eileen Patch as soloist.

Around two hundred guests assembled at the Glenview Woman's Club on Glenview Avenue for the reception. During the catered reception music was furnished by the Small orchestra.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of figured gray satin accented with pink, and wore pink and black accessories. Mrs. Vecchio chose a lovely flowered nylon afternoon dress. Each mother wore matching shoes.

Immediately following the reception the young couple left for a week's trip to Carmel and Santa Cruz. The bride chose for going away an outfit of black and white polished cotton with white accessories. Mr. McGowan attended the Oakland High School and Junior College. Ina Lee attended the Roseburg High School. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGowan are now at home, 720 E. 29th St. in Oakland where she is employed at the Howard Terminal and the bridegroom is employed at the Royal Typewriting Company.

MRS. CHRISTIAN HOSTS CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

The Riversdale MNO Club was entertained Wednesday evening by Mrs. Neil Christian. Following a brief business meeting the attendance prize was awarded to Mrs. H. W. Conn. Games were enjoyed with several prizes being awarded, after which Mrs. Christian assisted by Mrs. Don Kruse served refreshments to Mrs. Allan Christie, Mrs. R. S. Stryker, Mrs. Gene Holcomb, Mrs. H. B. Kruse, Mrs. H. W. Conn, Mrs. Jack Denton, Mrs. Argus Fisher, Mrs. Floyd Squier, Mrs. Don Harmon, Mrs. Bob Portland, Mrs. Darwin Lee, Mrs. L. W. Cottrell, Mrs. J. M. Burkhardt and Mrs. Don Guley. The next meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Holley.

CUTTING THE traditional first piece of wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. William Keith Depew, above, who were married Aug. 13, at the home of the bride's parents in Canyonville. The bride, Donna Lee Strahan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Strahan. The bridegroom is the son of Raymond L. Depew and Mrs. M. MacDonald.

Midsummer flowers in a traditional setting formed the focal point of the lawn wedding of Donna Lee Strahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Strahan of Canyonville, to William Keith Depew, son of Raymond L. Depew and Mrs. M. MacDonald, Saturday, Aug. 13, at 10:30 a.m., at the Strahan home with the Rev. O. L. Kendall of the Wilderville Methodist Church performing the ceremony, to which the immediate members of the family and a few close friends were invited.

Vows were said in a beautiful setting of shade trees and fern under an arch of fern, ivy and peace roses with vases of white and yellow gladioli and daisies at each base of the arch. The bride walked to her position over a rosepetal strewn path on the arm of her father, who gave her away, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played on the family organ by Mrs. Norman Lanson.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Hanson played "O Perfect Love," and during the ceremony Mrs. Ab Matthews of Riddle sang "Because." The bride wore a diaphanous white nylon lace ballerina length gown and carried a large colonial corsage of white carnations and delicate pink roses with white streamers. Her headpiece consisted of a tiny version of a white lacy "sassy sailor" hat.

Mrs. William A. Dugger of Myrtle Creek, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and wore a sheer pink voile frock and carried a colonial corsage of pale yellow carnations with gold ribbon.

Walter L. Depew, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The bride's mother was dressed in a linen suit, white with a black cross bar, and wore a corsage of pink gladioli. The newly married couple, their attendants and the bride's parents were in the receiving line at the reception which was held in the Strahan home, and featured a beautifully appointed table decorated in white and pale blue. A three-tier wedding cake matched this color scheme and was highlighted with touches of silver and ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wilson of Cloverdale, Calif., formerly of Roseburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce, to Bob Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Paul of Boonville, Calif. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Photo Lob).

TO BE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sconce of Sutherlin announce the engagement of their daughter, Gloria, to Ted L. Buck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted A. Buck of Sutherlin. The bride-elect is a senior at Sutherlin High School. Mr. Buck is a student at Linfield College. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Kopp's Modern Photography).

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HARRY JOHNSON, above, were married Aug. 14 at Elagrose Eden Lutheran Church by the Rev. Lester Olson. Mrs. Johnson was Charlotte Ione Sand and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Sand. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Annie E. Johnson of Roseburg. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

The Eden Lutheran Church at Elagrose was the scene Sunday, Aug. 14, of a pretty wedding when Miss Charlotte Ione Sand and John Harry Johnson were united in marriage. The Rev. Lester Olson of the local Faith Lutheran Church performed the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of many friends and relatives.

Arrangements of gladioli and magnolias formed the decorations. Mrs. Evelyn Gorthy, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Joe H. Sand, was beautiful in white velvet embroidered organza. Her fingertip veil was held in place by orange blossoms and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white gladioli and red roses.

The bride's attendants were Donna Sundberg as matron of honor in pastel blue organza; and Daleene Busenbark and Edythe Parr, aunt of the bride, as bridesmaids. They wore pastel yellow organza gowns. All carried nosegays of white carnations and yellow roses. Toni Werber, wearing green organza and a wristlet of pink carnations, was candlelighter.

Samuel H. Hair was best man, and ushers were Joe R. Sand, brother of the bride and Roland Cheek.

Mrs. Sand chose a blue print gown for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Johnson wore a blue nylon polka dot gown, and Mrs. Alta Parr, grandmother of the bride, wore blue and white nylon. All wore pink carnations.

A reception in the church followed the ceremony, at which 125 guests were served traditional refreshments. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Eldon Werber, aunt of the bride. Aunts, Mrs. Ronald Parr and Mrs. David Sand, served coffee and punch. Mrs. Bill Moffitt presented the guest book, and Mrs. George Sundberg arranged the gifts.

The bride chose a green wool suit and white accessories for her

BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols of Camas Valley announce the engagement of their daughter, Margy Lee, to Warren Nicklason, son of Edwin Nicklason of Tennille. The wedding is planned for late September. The bride-elect was graduated from Camas High School in June. Mr. Nicklason was graduated two years ago from Camas High School. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

PAINT WITH Treasure Tones
Colorcraft
Paint & Wallpaper
312 W. Cox—OR 2-2252
Roseburg, Oregon

MR. AND MRS. MARVIN G. ASHMAN pose for their wedding portrait following their marriage Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Petaluma, Calif. The bride, Joanne Ella Deaton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Deaton of Petaluma and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ashman of Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. Ashman spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and are presently residing at 1459 Magnolia Ave., Petaluma, and upon the bridegroom's discharge from the Army, he will enroll at OTI in Klamath Falls. (Picture by Deckers Studio, Petaluma).

Baskets of white blossoms, Esther Reed Daisies, gladioli and stock flanked the altar of the Petaluma Methodist Church for the wedding of Joanne Ella Deaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Deaton, and Marvin G. Ashman, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ashman of Roseburg.

When the bride was given in marriage by her father she was wearing a princess style frock of white antique taffeta with a lace bolero and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil of net was held in place by a band ornamented with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and small pink roses.

The Rev. Fred P. Hanes read the lines for the double ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Miss Martena Keys, as maid of honor, wore a pink crystalet dress with full skirt in waltz length. She carried a bouquet of blue Esther Reed Daisies.

Douglas Ashman was best man for his brother. Ushers were Kenneth Cantrell and Ralph Fox. Gladys Lange played the wedding music on the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Deaton chose a dress of lilac linen with matching accessories and a corsage of lilac carnations. Mother of the bridegroom wore a pink and charcoal sheath dress with jacket and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The newlyweds greeted the guests at a reception in the church parlors, where white gladioli, Esther Reed daisies and five-fingered ferns were used in decoration.

The couple cut the first slice of their wedding cake, decorated in white with a tinge of pink in the flowers. It was topped by wedding bells.

When the couple left for a honeymoon to Lake Tahoe the new Mrs. Ashman was wearing a suit of pink straw linen and white accessories.

Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ashman of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin G. Ashman are presently residing at 1459 Magnolia Ave., Petaluma. Upon his discharge from the army he will attend OTI, starting the spring term.

SORORITY HONORS MEMBER AT SHOWER

Mrs. William Bennett was pleasantly surprised recently at her home in Oakland at a pink and blue shower party, given by Beta Pi Chapter, ESA, Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. Paul Schulze were hostesses. After a period of games delicious refreshments were served.

Present were Mesdames W. Bennett, Leslie Heaton, Vernon Bunch, Kenneth Manning, Wesley Toppings, Lyle Stuve, William Adams, Paul Allen, Wayne Rice, Floyd Ross, James Runge, James Watson and the hostesses.

PLEASED AS PUNCH at the prospect of the trans-polar flight are Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Berrie, above, as they board a Canadian Pacific Airlines plane at Vancouver, B. C., bound for Amsterdam, Holland. The Berries were the first passengers south of Portland to take this new flight, which was inaugurated June 10 and is made once a week. The Berries will spend three months in Europe. They will visit their son, Lt. Robert Berrie, who is stationed in Germany, and who will accompany them on a tour of Spain and other Southern European countries. Arrangements for the trip were made by William Jelski of the Lewis Travel Service. (Picture by Jack Lindsay Ltd., Photographers, Vancouver B. C.).

JUST CALL—
Frank Bergh
For Information on Whirlpool & Speed
Queen
Washers & Dryers
Phone OR 3-8348

Pray tell me what half so sweet is... as a sweetheart's shower of kisses?

KNUDTSENS'
JEWELERS
ACROSS FROM THE DOUGLAS COUNTY STATE BANK