

THE MEMORIES TEA held by the Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church was a large and successful event of Thursday afternoon. Serving the punch above is Mrs. Lloyd Crenshaw. Standing are Mrs. Newell Morgan, general chairman of the affair; Mrs. Selby Leep, Mrs. Jess Marr, Mrs. Byron Harmon and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp. Below, Mrs. Bert Brewer poses as the bride in one of the program numbers and Stephanie Jellison and Carleen Burnett served as "Yesterday's Girls," and pulled the drapes to show the various features. (Pictures by Chris of Photo Lab).

Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church held a "Memories Tea" on Thursday afternoon, honoring all women in the church past 70 years of age, and all shut-ins regardless of age. Chairman for the tea was Mrs. Newell Morgan. Assisting Mrs. Morgan were Blanche Marr, refreshments; Estelle Harmon and Jo Feldkamp, decorations; Virginia Marr, roses for remembrance; Sally Leep and Toni Crenshaw, pouring; Jerry Morin, Marilyn Shirley, Helen Niday, Pat Niday, Thelma Stubblefield, Kay Snyder and Marlene Wrick, serving. Living pictures that were highlights of the women's memories were the feature of the program for which Veloris Baxter was the reader. Stephanie Jellison and Carleen Burnett served as "Yesterday's Girls" and pulled the curtains on the past. Special numbers included a vocal solo by Marion Jones; prayer by Jennie Neseth and daughter, Laura Jean; the 23rd Psalm by Marilee Currier, reading by Sue Hamm; piano solo by Betty Lou Yundt; The Lord's Prayer sung by Lena Polle; a vocal solo by Christie Neseth and a vocal solo by Nellie Bailey. Others assisting in the program were: Naomi Murdoch, Nina Brewer, Mary Hooten, and Ethel White. Honored guests present were Emma Beckley, Myrtle Bailey, Cora Church, Lina Cranfill, Ada Davis, Mrs. T. W. Delaney, Ethel Hughes, Mrs. Ross Lovelace, Hattie Neal, Mrs. W. A. Pearce, Mrs. F. I. Perry, Alice Wing, Mrs. Mrs. W. E. Strickling, Mary Stelzler, Daisy Dillingham, Mrs. Leah Perdue, Mrs. James Long, Luella May Rice and Etta Wilson, all of Roseburg; Mrs. Mary Cotthrel of Eugene, and Mrs. Clara M. Marks of Los Angeles, Calif.

FOUR GENERATIONS are pictured above on the 72nd birthday of Mrs. James H. Shepherd of Tuscaloosa, Ala., shown at the left, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Juanita Buenger, of Glendale; her grandson, Richard Reid, and her great-grandson, Donnie Reed, also of Glendale. (Fox Photo).

Whipple Family Reunion Held At Drain Sunday

The annual Whipple family reunion was a large and enjoyable event of Sunday at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whipple in Drain. Enjoying the event were: Attorney and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stewart and children, Nancy, Roger and Joanne; Mrs. Betty Rawson and children, Larry, Cheryl and Ronda; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Dixon, all of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whipple and son, Jim-

LETSON RANCH IS SCENE OF REUNION

The annual Letsom family reunion held each year at the Letsom ranch in Scotts Valley was held Sunday. Three of the original Letsoms were present: Mrs. Martha Harris of Corvallis, Mrs. Ben (Letha) Hedrick of Drain, and Kit Letsom of Yoncalla. A basket dinner was enjoyed under the big trees of the Letsom home.

Those present to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. Harold Hodges of Moses Lake, Wash.; Mrs. Hazel Woot, Mr. and Mrs. John Hedrick, Mrs. Bessie Vroman of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Aubrey and family of Creswell; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Laying and son of Boring; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Laying and daughter, Walda; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Theis and family, Joe Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Aubrey and family; Mrs. Eva Aubrey of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones and family of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and family; Molly Letsom of Drain; Henry Miller and sister and husband of Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Potter, Miss Maxine Potter, Mrs. Evelyn Patrick and family; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller and son; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee of Yoncalla. One of the original members of the family, Mrs. Harris, was unable to attend. Visiting and horse shoe throwing was enjoyed during the afternoon.

MRS. S. V. O'REILLY HONORED AT PARTY

A farewell party was given by Mrs. E. R. Foster at her home for Mrs. S. V. O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly and family have left for San Jose, Calif., to make their home, Canada and pinocle were played and prizes were won by Mrs. O'Reilly, Mrs. Harold Desbiens and Mrs. T. M. O'Connell. A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. O'Reilly. A smorgasbord was served to Mrs. S. V. O'Reilly, Mrs. Nelson Howard, Mrs. James Kilbenny, Mrs. William Amot, Harold Desbiens, Mrs. T. J. Raade, Mrs. E. M. Murphy, Mrs. Robert Wandling, Mrs. Robert Herbage, Mrs. T. M. O'Connell, Mrs. Francis Circle, Mrs. Schafer, Mrs. Henry Flury and Mrs. Ray Ward.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS REUNION DATE CHANGED

The date of the reunion-picnic of the 1933 Roseburg High School class has been changed from Sept. 4 to Sunday, Sept. 11, at 1:30 p.m. at Umpqua Park. Teachers and members from out-of-town are expected to attend. Committee members, Mrs. Dan Kennerly, Mrs. Edward McLoughlin and Mrs. Bert Young, would like to have those planning to attend call on them. Those attending are asked to bring a salad or hot dish and dessert and own table service.

HANDS ENTERTAIN PINOCHE CLUB

Fair Oaks Pinochle Club met Saturday night at the Alfred Hand home west of Oakland. Beautiful bouquets of summer flowers graced the rooms. For the evening's pinocle play, Edward Lamoreaux won high score for men and Mrs. Pearl Hand, high score for ladies; second high scores went to Alfred Hand and Mrs. Maggie Francis, and consolation prizes went to Lee Williams and Mrs. Dorothy Austin. At midnight a delicious potluck supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux and son, Jon; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, Mrs. Mabel Allen, Mrs. Mabel Crouse, Mrs. Maggie Francis and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand. The next meeting will be held one week early on account of the Labor Day holidays, Saturday night, Aug. 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Francis.

BRENT CLAYPOOL CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Brent Claypool began his birthday celebration with a family hamburger fry Saturday afternoon. Members of the family attending were his mother, Tressie Claypool; Jerry Claypool, Hyle and Joyce Hughes, Karen and Steve Hughes. Marvin Schneider was a guest. The children played games on the lawn after Brent opened his birthday gifts. On Sunday morning the Claypools and Hughes went to the Ivan Landers home where they had a late breakfast. During the afternoon they went swimming.

THE HODGES FAMILY held a delightful family reunion Sunday at the Ted Hodges home. From left to right are: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy (Iona) Wilson and son, Ricky, 8-months; and daughter, Terrie Lee, 5 years; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hodges and daughter, Glene, 9-months; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hodges and son, Stephen, 1 year, and the Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Hodges and sons, Lynn Jr., 11, and Stanley, 5, and daughter, Shirley, 13. (Picture by Gene Powell, Master Studio).

and Glenn with Mrs. Hodges and small daughter came from Eugene. The Hodges son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Wilson (Iona) and children, Terri Lee, 5, and Ricky, 8 months, live at Green. The group spent Monday and Tuesday at the coast enjoying an outing. The Rev. Lynn Hodges, Mrs. Hodges and their children, Shirley, Lynn Jr. and Stanley, left Wednesday for their home in Topeka, where they pastor the South Topeka Community Baptist Church and originate the "Way of Life" radio program. The Rev. Terry Hodges with Mrs. Hodges and their small son, Stephen, will leave over the weekend for Lodi, Calif., where they will visit with Mrs. Hodges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith and family. They will then proceed to their home in Overbrook, Kans., where the Rev. Mr. Hodges teaches in the English and Speech departments of the high school and has charge of the library. Both Lynn and his brother, Terry, are working for their master's degrees in the University of Kansas at Lawrence. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hodges and daughter, Glene, will leave Sunday for Eugene where the former is employed with Montgomery Ward and Company. The family group has been united at this time for the first gathering in two years. During their stay here they have made numerous public appearances conducting church services and programs in connection with the local broadcast over KRNT, which comes on the air at 8:45 each weekday morning as the "Way of Life." Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges resided in Lookingglass for a number of years with their growing family. All of the young folk attended the valley school and Lynn and his sister Iona graduated from the Lookingglass High. The two younger boys graduated from Roseburg High. The young folk conducted the Sunday morning service at the "old home church" in Lookingglass and greeted a capacity crowd. Among those returning for the service were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hutto and daughter, Alma Grace of Glendale; Rev. and Mrs. C. N. Currier and son, Beryl, of Roseburg; Rev. Grace Hartley-Nelson of LaGrande; and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Buell, Portland.

RECEIVING THE PRIZE for being the oldest pensioner at the picnic is George Singleton, above left. At the right N. V. Dicianno, a Southern Pacific conductor from Eugene, who acted as master of ceremonies.

WINNER of the choir given as a prize at the S. P. picnic Sunday was A. E. Rummell, retired agent from Marcola. At the left is A. W. McGuire, co-chairman of the picnic committee.

A large event of Sunday was the first annual picnic of the Southern Pacific employees and pensioners. Five hundred people were present to enjoy the dinner and entertainment which included a skit by Mrs. N. V. Dicianno; drill by the Knights of Pythias drum and bugle corps, directed by Billy Black; barbershop chorus numbers, directed by Chuck Ricketts; dance and baton novelty numbers by Joy Powell Dance Studio; and Hammond organ music by Jack Coxen, operator of Eugene.

throughout the day under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pemberton. Co-chairmen of the event were A. W. McGuire and Mrs. R. V. Miller. The picnic was proclaimed a grand success through the cooperation of local merchants, including Ott and Ricketts, Payless Drug, Schroeder Furniture, Scherer Bottling, Medo-Land Ice Cream Co., Roseburg Jewelry, Roseburg Cafe and Harris Cafe. Guests of honor were pensioners A. E. Rummell, Marcola; C. P. Stoddy, Yoncalla; Andrew McCarthy, Grants Pass; S. D. Willis, Ridge; George Trimble, Albany; W. F. Monahan, San Francisco; A. J. Huggert, W. G. Burt, C. O. Hosmer, H. F. Ogden, all of Eugene, Sam Starmer, Coquille; H. C. Boyle, Camas Valley; J. E. Clark, O. W. Nelson, J. A. Zimrick, H. F. Hatfield, George Singleton, J. E. Dent, W. M. Chalmers, F. S. Monroe, H. D. Williams, C. H. McClung, E. W. Sharp, J. F. Byrd, O. D. McAllister, H. F. Snyder, W. A. Long, J. G. Hunter, J. B. Patrick, Herbert Hough, D. B. Boone, A. L. Howard, B. F. Ryan, E. C. Adams and R. W. Meissner.

Art Association To Sponsor Fair Exhibit

The Roseburg Art Association is sponsoring an exhibit at the fairgrounds Aug. 26-27-28. Those helping to register the work entered are Mrs. George Powers, Mrs. Floyd Warner, Miss Amy Robinson, Judy Brubaker, Mrs. Jack West and Mrs. Earl Wiley for the fine arts; Mrs. W. Frank Brown, weaving and miscellaneous arts; and Mrs. Harry Brubaker for the ceramics and china painting. The committee for arranging and hanging the pictures includes: Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Margaret Carr, Mrs. Earl Wiley and displaying of weaving and miscellaneous arts, Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Colette Eaton; arranging and displaying ceramics, Mrs. Harry Brubaker and Mrs. Paul Beaver; china painting, Mrs. Vern South, a and photography, Mrs. Norris Jewell. Judges for the miscellaneous and craft arts will be Mrs. Hatch of Eugene. Judge for the fine arts will be Dean Vincent of the University of Oregon and for photography, Charles Conkling, master photographer from Portland. All work to be exhibited must be in the fairgrounds before 6 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 21. Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Jack West, general superintendent; Mrs. Earl Wiley, fine arts superintendent; Mrs. Harry Brubaker, ceramics; Mrs. Frank Brown, miscellaneous arts, and Mrs. Norris H. Jewell, superintendent of the photography division.

Mary Kathryn Purdy Honored At Shower

To honor Mary Kathryn Purdy, bride-elect of Rand Holder, a charming bridal shower was given by Mrs. Deming Bronson assisted by Miss Judy Brubaker and her mother, Mrs. Harry Brubaker, at the beautiful Bronson home on the South Umpqua River, Wednesday evening. Zinnias formed the room decorations, while sweetmeats were used for the table decorations. Invited to honor Miss Purdy were her mother, Mrs. Frank Purdy; Miss Kay Emery, Miss Marlene Emmitt, Miss Cindy Randall, Miss Leola Lorenzen, Miss Barbara Brand, Miss Joyce Knudson, Miss Donna Ellison, Mrs. Don Strumbo, Mrs. Dave Burks, Miss Charlotte Davis, Miss Carolyn Patison, Miss Jan Johnson, Mrs. William Moats, Miss Eleanor Jo Dameron, Miss Marlee Schweppe, Miss Muriel Ellison, Mrs. Marjorie Ellison, Mrs. Larry Foster, Mrs. Jack Holder, Mrs. W. W. Rietmann, Miss Jan Mauro, Miss Jeanne Thompson, Miss Shirlee Miller, Miss Alvina Redmond, Miss Betty Rudzik, Miss Anita Herrman, Miss Dalene Bunsbark, Miss Cynthia Powers, Mrs. L. S. Wolfe, Miss Kitty Jensen, Mrs. Leonard Langley and Mrs. Lovry Thomas. A lovely delectable supper was served by the hostesses and a delightful social evening was enjoyed.

Informal Dinner Held At Wimberly Home

As a farewell honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Healy and children, Jimmy and Kathy, of Los Angeles, and to honor Mr. and Mrs. Leland K. Wimberly on their 9th wedding anniversary, Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly entertained at a family dinner party at their home Wednesday evening.

Following the dinner, friends called in farewell to the Healys. Mrs. Healy, the former Frances Wimberly, is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Wimberly, Leland K. Wimberly, is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Wimberly, Leland K. Wimberly is a son of the C. E. Wimberlys.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE WINNERS ANNOUNCED

North-South duplicate bridge play winners for Tuesday night at the Elks were Mrs. M. H. Phillips and Mrs. A. B. Collier, first; Mrs. Clay Cornell and Doyile Frosnell, second, and Mrs. Lytle Bodenmer and Oscar Wallace, third. East-West winners were Mrs. G. W. Marshall and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, first; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bowker, second, and Mrs. M. L. Hallmark and Mrs. Harry Hildebrand, third.

CINDY POST HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Cindy Post celebrated her 10th birthday Friday at the home of her parents in Garden Valley. Horseback riding was enjoyed by the girls. Mrs. Post served birthday cake to Toni Perkins, Linda Langley, Sandy Zuver and Susan Hardick.

Joy Powell Dance Studio

327 West Cass
announces

OPEN HOUSE

demonstrations in

Dance and Baton

Ballet, Tap, Toe, Acrobatic, Character Dances and Baton Twirling.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1
8:00 P. M.
WOMEN'S CLUB
201 West Masher Street

All are invited. As refreshments will be served please reserve ORchard 2-2880 or QRchard 2-1523 for reservations. No Admission Charge

Enroll Your Child Now

Private lessons or classes for girls and boys of all ages. Special classes for pre-school students.

Dance Instruction By Joy Powell
Baton Instruction By
Maxine Merk

Wilma's Beauty Shop

Closed on Mondays
REGULAR SHOP
PERMANENTS From $5 up
SHAMPOO and WAVE,
$1.50 up
Telephone 2-1552

Two Doors North of Garden Valley
Rural Fire Hall, 1935 Beacon Way