

Washingtonians Spend Time In Sutherlin

By MRS. BRITTAIN SLACK
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Downing and three sons from Spokane, spent several days in Sutherlin recently visiting with Mrs. Downing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Vogel, and their son, Stephen, who had been visiting with his grandparents for the past week. Stephen returned with his parents to Spokane Tuesday.

Discharged
Marvin Slack, who underwent surgery at Mercy Hospital recently has been discharged and brought to his home in Sutherlin. Marvin is getting along just fine and will soon be able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Curly Vaale, spent the weekend at the coast on a fishing trip. They went deep sea fishing and returned with a large fish.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Beswick and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Beswick and daughter from Stockport, Iowa, who have been visiting with Mrs. Henretta Beswick and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams left recently for their home. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Dacus and children of Seattle, Wash., were here to visit Mrs. Beswick Tuesday. Mrs. Ray Gaylor of Anchorage, Alaska, Mrs. Beswick's daughter, is spending some time here and in Eugene with her sister, Mrs. Chester Williams, who underwent major surgery a week ago at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene. Mrs. Williams is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected and it is hoped that she will be able to return home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Haines spent Sunday at Winchester Bay fishing until the water got so rough that they had to return to shore. Mrs. Ruby Holliday, who has been gone most of the summer returned to her home on First Avenue last week and will soon resume her duties at the Fair Oaks School.

SUBMITS LOW BID

PORTLAND — L. B. Read of Portland submitted the apparent low bid of $195,167 for building the control house at Big Eddy substation, the Bonneville Power Administration reported Monday.

The substation, to be located three miles east of The Dalles, will be a power switching point for electricity generated at McNary and The Dalles dams.

Glide School Personnel Will Attend Institute

The teaching personnel of all schools of the Glide School District 12, will meet at 9 a.m. Friday Sept. 2 at the Glide High School library to attend Interservice Training Institute, the subject to be "Improvement in Reading."

The principal speaker will be Charles Dean of the extension department of the University of Oregon.

Dean was formerly curriculum co-ordinator of the Billings, Mont. schools for 17 years. Wayne Schermerhorn, principal of the Glide Grade School, will be in charge of the meeting.

Have Many Guests
Mr. and Mrs. John Neely of Little River Road had a household of guests the past week. First to arrive were Mrs. Neely's sister, Mrs. Louis Atkins of Brookings, S.D., and niece and nephew, Mr.

and Mrs. John Griffith, of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thorpe of Cascade Locks spent five days at the Neely home followed by Neely's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Neely and four sons, Michael, Bobbie, David and John, of Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Darling of Sutherlin spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McGinnis at Steamboat. McGinnis is construction engineer with the Funderburk Construction Co. The Darlings were former residents of Steamboat.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Simmons of Portland visited over the weekend with Mrs. Simmons' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Duncan.

Jack Pugh killed a rattlesnake, 28 inches long. It had 10 rattles. He killed it in the driveway to his home at Idlewild Park Friday.

Pugh stated there were two snakes but the other got away before he could get in action with his gaff. Snakes seem to be taking the spotlight in Douglas County this summer. Word was received from Lou Ammerman of Tyee, former residents of Idlewild Park, that he had killed two rattlers at his home, the first to be seen in 15 years in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Peifer of Roseburg brought their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Peifer of Sherman Oaks, Calif., on a tour of the North Umpqua Saturday.

Baker Park on the North Umpqua was crowded to capacity Sunday. Picnickers arriving about noon were unable to get in.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark of Roseburg, former residents of the community, visited old friends Sunday.

Camas Valley Folks Have Recent Visitors

By MRS. WM. CUNNINGHAM

Guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Prior were Mr. and Mrs. S. Miner of Winston; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lowe and family of Roseburg. The party enjoyed a picnic mid-day dinner at the Camas Wayside Park.

Return Home
Mr. and Mrs. James Combs and daughter, Sharon, and Bud Johnson have returned home from a week's vacation spent in California. The party visited in Ukiah, Willets and Garberville, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts Sr. and son, Bill, and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Drake and son, Mickey, have moved from the valley to Star City, Ark.

Recent visitors in the valley were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson and children of Amarillo, Tex. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Akey have returned to the valley and have taken residence in the Wheeler home, previously the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lutz. Akey is the new principal for the Camas Valley School.
