MRS. BOLING HOSTS GARDEN CLUB THURSDAY

The Lookingglass Garden Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Cliff Boling. Roll call was answered by naming an Oregon bird. A discussion of the Bob White Quail was led by Ms. Echo Heard. Mrs. Charlotte Bowlin presented a study of old bulbs, their planting and culture.

The group decided to hold a bulb exchange at the next meeting Sept. 22; place to be announced later. A study of tuberous begonias will be presented at the next meeting.

A lengthy discussion was held concerning plans for the fair exhibit. Mrs. Mildred Ollivant, Mrs. Dorothy Boling and Mrs. Echo Heard are the committee in charge. The Garden Club theme for the fair as announced by the county president, Mrs. C. J. Bielman, centers around the Disney scenes.

Mrs. Erma Wilson of the Wilson Studio in Roseburg was a guest and took a picture of the group. Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Marsh assisted by the hostess, Mrs. Boling.

The members are asked to think about a suitable motto for the local club and report at the next meeting. The pine tree was chosen as a symbol and the Johnnie-jump-up as the club flower.

DAV MEMBERS ENJOY PARTY AT MARR HOME

The members of Florence Nightingale, Tent No. 15, enjoyed a combined wedding and birthday party Thursday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. James Marr on East Douglas St.

Mary Farmer, nee Mary Peterson, who was married July 28, and Elizabeth Gardner, the only member having a birthday in August, were the honored guests and each received a corsage from the hostess.

Games were played with Mary Farmer and Susan Bowman winning the prizes.

Elizabeth Gardner received many lovely handkerchiefs from the members, after which Mary Farmer had the pleasure of opening the many gifts presented to her from the guests and Tent No. 15.

Around the room were bouquets of beautiful summer flowers. On the piano stood a large bride doll under a parasol. Each guest received a small bridesmaid doll to match.

Refreshments were served to the guests of honor and Cora Dourte, Wilma Rooke, Ruth Reese, Susan Bowman, Evelyn Cyrus, Essie Olson, Anna Peterson, Alice Goff, Lorraine Horn, Virginia Marr and daughter, Dorothy; Ruth Plumer and Nancy Cyrus.

Next meeting will be Sept. 9 at the KP Hall.

AZALEA GARDEN CLUB MEETS ON TUESDAY
