OAKLAND CHURCH SETS DINNER ON FRIDAY

A covered dish dinner for families and friends of the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church will be held at 7 o'clock tonight at the Veteran's Memorial Bldg. This is part of the program of the church during its financial campaign, which culminates Sunday. There will be no solicitation for pledges at the dinner, where Dr. O. Leftoy Walter, minister of the Moreland Presbyterian Church of Portland, moderator for the current year of the Presbyterian Synod of Oregon and financial manager for the Oakland Church campaign, will be the speaker. The dinner is under the auspices of the Mariners Club of the church.

SCOUT CHILI FEED IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

A chili feed was held at the Deer Creek School Monday evening, for the Scouts of Troop 45 and leader, George Krueger, and parents and friends of the boys. Following the dinner a charter was presented to the troop by Jim Addock, chairman of the Oregon Council. A court of honor was also held with awards going to the following boys present: David Gailley, Errol Maddox, Garry Haas, Donald Quimby, Larry Rust, Ronny Radcliffe, Jerry Rust, Albert Young, Gary McCormack and Don Ahlon.

CANYONVILLE AUXILIARY POSTPONES FESTIVAL

Members of the Canyonville VFW Auxiliary met Wednesday afternoon at the Canyonville library and decided to postpone until next month their projected harvest festival which was to be held Aug. 27. Their reason for delaying the festival was that many of the participants, both in the band and in the parade, were away on vacation this last week before school opens.

FAIR OAKS HEC PLANS NEW KITCHEN

Fair Oaks Home Economics Club met Tuesday at the grange hall at a noon potluck dinner with Lois King and Dorothy Austin as hostesses. Eight members and one guest, Mrs. Mary Whitney, were present.

The business meeting was opened by the chairman, Mrs. King, and a report was given on the proceeds that were made at the booth during the Timber Days celebration, and committees were appointed to assist with the necessary work when the Bloodmobile will be in Sutherlin.

Plans were discussed for the new kitchen that is to be built soon.

DEMONSTRATION PARTY GIVEN AT DILLARD

Mrs. Ernest Jorgenson entertained a group of friends Tuesday afternoon at a party at her home in Dillard. Mrs. Hazel Lemon of Roseburg gave the interesting demonstration. The door prize was won by Mrs. Ira Swaim. Those enjoying the pleasant afternoon with the hostess, Mrs. Jorgenson, were: Mrs. Helen Schiermeister, Mrs. Dale Brown, Mrs. Gene Bridges, Mrs. Ira Swaim, Mrs. G. Phillip Smith, Mrs. Jean Horsley, Mrs. Edith Bratsch, Miss Ann Height, Mrs. Leo Willis and Mrs. Jean Godfrey. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the party.

COUNCIL MEETING HELD BY YONCALLA MYF

The Yoncalla MYF group of the Methodist Church held a council meeting at the home of Chuck Goodwin Monday. There had been no meetings during the summer and it was decided to have the first regular meeting Sept. 4. Misses Anne Lasswell and Jane Warner will have charge of the meeting. It should be very interesting as both girls will just be back from a conference at Lafayette, Ind. A committee of four people is also working on a picnic and swimming party following the meeting. The group planned to purchase a gift for Miss Janice Gordon, who underwent an appendectomy recently. Another council meeting will be held Sept. 1 at the home of Misses Anne and Connie Campbell.

Delicious refreshments were served following the closing of the meeting. Those present included Anne Campbell, Jane Warner, Juanita Johnston, Anne Lasswell, Connie Campbell, Chuck Goodwin, Bill Lasswell, Bill Goodwin and Mrs. Avery Lasswell.

GROUP TO SELL PIES AT COUNTY FAIR

The Umpqua Farm Bureau held its monthly meeting recently at the hall in Elkton with 21 members present at a potluck supper. Reports were given by each committee chairman. There will be 40 pies donated by the ladies to be sold in the Farm Bureau booth at the County Fair this weekend. Several ladies are helping in the booth.
