THE WEDDING of Lois Elizabeth Archibald, Salem, and Attorney Donald Arthur Dole, Roseburg, took place at the First Presbyterian Church in Salem at 8 p.m. Saturday July 30, with Dr. Paul N. Poling officiating. Following a honeymoon to Oregon beaches and to Victoria, B. C., Attorney and Mrs. Dole are now at home to their friends at 315 Chadwick St., Roseburg. (Picture by McEwan's Photo Shop, Salem).

A beautiful wedding at the First Presbyterian Church in Salem was Saturday evening, July 30, when Miss Lois Elizabeth Archibald and Donald Arthur Dole were united in marriage. Dr. Paul N. Poling performed the 8 o'clock ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Earl Archibald, Salem; and Mr. Dole, who resides in Roseburg, is the son of Mrs. Homer Gorman, Portland; and Meard Dole, Forks, Wash.

Three large baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, silver ivy touched with blue, and candelabra formed the church decorations. The pews were marked with blue satin silver bows and ivy.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Bruce Rankin, Mrs. R. J. Chance and Miss Jean Soucy of Roseburg, wore gowns identical to the matron of honor.

Norman K. Dole, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Don Sanders, Lee Archibald, brother of the bride; A. B. Braatan and Robert Bradley.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Archibald wore an orchid rose lace dress and corsage of tinted stephanotis and baby roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace over satin gown and corsage of stephanotis and Peter-pan roses.

A reception was held at the Delta Gamma sorority house on the Willamette University campus, following the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a blue cloth and centered with a white and silver vase holding a miniature bouquet of baby breath and stephanotis. Mrs. Frederick Tolley, aunt of the bride cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny, Mrs. Ray Traylor and Mrs. Frank O. Dole, grandmother of the bridegroom. Assisting were Mrs. Paul Snook and Mrs. Roy Wilkinson.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches and Victoria, B.C., the bride was wearing a brown wool costume suit with matching hat and beige shoes and bag. The couple is at home at 315 Chadwick, Roseburg.
