State Police Question Father, Son About Fires

GRANTS PASS — State police Wednesday were questioning a man and his son in connection with a series of fires which broke out along Coyote Creek Road in the Wolf Creek area Tuesday.

State forestry patrolmen held them for arrest when they went to investigate the blazes and found them in a truck. The two, who live in a trailer house in the area, are William Clarence Schleigh, 33, and William Lester Schleigh, 26.

Sgt. C. R. Borgman said the son admitted tossing some lighted matches through the window of the truck as they drove along.

GRANDMA'S 95 — Sept. 7 marks the 95th birthday of Anna Mary Robertson Moses, of Eagle Bridge, N.Y., affectionately known to millions as "Grandma Moses." At 77, an age when most women would settle for the old rocking chair, she started painting "seriously." The self-taught artist won fame and fortune as an outstanding "primitive" painter less than 10 years later.

LAY KEEL FOR '56 MAYFLOWER — Old Glory and the Union Jack fly as keel is laid for copy of Mayflower at Brixton, England. She'll visit U. S. next summer.
