Figures tabulated for this year's first seven months showed the big General Motors division registered 905,912 new passenger units throughout the United States in this year's January-July period compared with Ford's 884,300 Ford passenger cars.

Ford led through most of this year until figures were tabulated through June.

The January-July figures also show Buick holding tightly to third place in new car sales with 446,411 registrations against Plymouth's 402,209.

The newest figures were published Monday by the trade paper Automotive News. The paper also reported an increase in used car stocks held by franchised new car dealers. It said a survey showed the dealers were holding an average of nearly 30-days' supply. "Not since last spring," the paper said, "have used car stocks been that heavy."

SECRETARY TREASURER MORAN Wyo. (AP) — H. B. Glaisyer, secretary of the Oregon Highway Commission, has been named secretary-treasurer of the Western Assn. of State Highway Officials.

He was elected Saturday at the close of the groups' 34th annual meeting here.

J. R. Bromley, Wyoming state highway engineer, was elected president.

Document Source Sets Off Angry Words At Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Acrimonious exchanges were touched off at a hearing Monday of the House Governmental Operations subcommittee on public works and resources by the Democratic chairman's reference to a key document as "anonymous."

The hearing was under way but a short time when Chairman Earl Cudoff (D-pa) referred to the "anonymous document" and brought an angry denial from Claire E. Hoffman (R-Mich), who declared:

"There is nothing anonymous about it at all. It has been identified as to where it came from."

The document contained a number of recommendations by Western public utility companies to the Department of the Interior concerning proposed changes in regulations for handling public power.

The fireworks began shortly after Herman C. Kruse, executive representative of Pacific Gas &

Electric Co., the utility's Washington lobbyist, took the stand as first witness.

Kruse said in a statement that while he gave the document to Clarence Davis, then solicitor for the Department of the Interior and now an undersecretary, "it is simply ridiculous to suggest that I influenced Mr. Davis or any of his assistants in changing the regulations."

Chudoff claimed that 10 or the 13 proposed changes "were adopted verbatim."

Robert H. Gerdes, executive vice president of P. G. & E., interrupted to say the document was not prepared in the office of P. G. & E., but in the offices of Idaho Power & Light Co.

"There was nothing secretive about it at all," Kruse commented.

Arthur Younger, Republican congressman from San Mateo, Calif., who is a member of the present committee and was sitting ex-officio at the hearing, called the subcommittee to task, saying:

"I think the people are entitled to get the facts of the case and are not interested in politics. I personally suggest that you proceed with the case and leave politics to 1956."
