

CAUGHT SNOOZING!!! Salesman Zem Cutting was caught napping last week by Rennie Secanti, local businesswoman. Secanti will win a washing machine which was the prize for anyone who caught a salesman sleeping during the 72-hour "Mad Maytag Marathon" staged by Quality Furnishers. This picture is a re-creation of what happened early that morning. The woman is Mrs. Rennie Secanti. (Photo by Master Studio)

members attended the evening meeting. In the line of honors, Isaac has been asked by the West German government to serve as a consultant on forests in that country for a couple of months. He won the 1952 award of achievement from the Western Forestry and Conservation Assn. and in 1954 was elected to the honorable position of fellow of the SAF.

Another featured guest at the meeting was Dan Robinson, forestry professor at Oregon State College.

Committees Appointed

Chairman William I. Stein, of the Siskiyou - Cascade Research Center, appointed a new secretary and members of standing committees. Daniel D. Olin, Umpqua National Forest, is the secretary.

Narry D. Young, an independent logger, is chairman of the membership committee. Committee members are: John E. Todd, Umpqua Forest; Charles M. Dugan, Coquille-Hwywood Co.; and Gene Slocum, Evans Products Co. Bud Vladimiroff, Roseburg District, Bureau of Land Management, and Kurt A. Munnich, Coos Bay Pulp Corp., will be co-chairmen of the communications and publicity committees. Other members are Edward E. Gilden, Douglas County extension forester, and William A. Cowan, Coos Bay District, BLM.

Robert E. Kischell, head of the Douglas County Lands Dept., and John Lausch, Coos Bay District, BLM, together head a program committee. Gordon W. Pruitt, Roseburg, State Board of Forestry, and Henry R. Heppert, Weyerhaeuser Timber Corp., are committee members.

Next chapter meeting will be Nov. 19 at Coos Bay. There will be no October meeting because of the SAF national convention Oct. 17-20 in Portland.

LICENSE EXAMINER

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Roseburg Thursday and Friday at 120 N. Kane St., between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., according to an announcement received from the secretary of state's office.

Liberty By Chinese Reds Gift To Missionary sent there by the Americans. This I denied. I said and I wrote that it was not so and I told them I could prove it, but they never believed me."

The missionary said he was not tortured but "they rode us pretty hard to get us to admit things."

He said he was accused of collecting and sending information to his mission board, the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

Military Notes Sent

"Some of this information was of military nature concerning China's civil war," he said. "As a former Office of Strategic Services man, my reports would have naturally taken on a military nature."

He said he filed a report to his mission board secretary on China's internal political and military situation which later was forwarded to Washington.

"I sent some military information before the Communists arrived," he said. "Not much but a little. I sent nothing after the Communists arrived, although I took some pictures."

The missionary, his wife and daughter went to the women's home at Kowloon for a birthday dinner and cake.

Mrs. Lovegren, who spent 20 years with her husband in China, left when the Reds took over the mainland and has lived here since. Another daughter, Mrs. Edith Lambert, is the wife of a Baptist minister at Minot, N.D.

Retarded Children Assn. Meeting Set Wednesday

The Roseburg Assn. for Retarded Children has scheduled a meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Westside Christian Church.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weachter, director of the Pearl Buck School at Eugene, will be featured. She will show pictures and some of her equipment to aid the local chapter work with children.

Dr. George Wadsworth, manager of the Roseburg Veterans Hospital, and Dr. Glenn Wright, also from the hospital, will explain psychiatric tests to be given the local children.

Mrs. Alice Johnson, president of the association, has requested that parents of retarded children bring their children to the Wednesday session. She has also asked that local organizations interested send representatives.

She reported the association is still looking for a full-time teacher and a part-time teacher to direct handicrafts. She also asked for any men wishing to teach youngsters uses of tools and how to make woodwork articles. They may call Mrs. Johnson at OR 3-5113.

DRUNK DRIVING CHARGED

A 38-year-old Roseburg man was to be arraigned today in municipal court after Roseburg police arrested him for drunken driving following a traffic accident Saturday afternoon.

He is Ernest Martin Kolberg, 2822 Myrtle Ave. Police said he was driving a pickup truck involved in an accident with a car driven by Donald Lee White, 1144 Pilger St. at Washington and Stephens streets.

New Russian Maneuvers Face Europe

Withdrawal Of U.S. Troops Asked, Amnesty Promise Given Exiles

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union is wasting no time in renewing its call for American troops to quit Europe in the wake of Russia's promise to return the Porkkala naval base to Finland.

Hard on the heels of Russia's concession to her Baltic neighbor, the Communist party newspaper Pravda commented:

"There can be no doubt that the abolition by other powers of military bases on foreign territory would be an important contribution to the further relaxation of international tension and would help to create the necessary conditions for ending the arms drive."

Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov was expected to take the same tack before the United Nations Assembly, opening tomorrow in New York, as well as in the Big Four foreign ministers conference in Geneva next month.

Amnesty Lure Extended

In another phase of the complicated diplomatic maneuvers under way in the Soviet capital, the government announced a sweeping amnesty reducing or canceling sentences of Soviet citizens convicted of collaborating with the Germans during World War II.

This was viewed here as a necessary prelude to the expected official announcement of amnesty for German war prisoners still held by the Soviets. Their return was promised West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer during his visit.

The amnesty decree by the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet also said Soviet citizens who were exiled or deported on collaboration charges, or who fled abroad and served in "anti-Soviet organizations," could return home and be cleared of guilt if they came back repentant "to an honest life of labor and to become useful members of the socialist society."

This appeal to the exiles and refugees appeared to be part of the Communist world's big campaign to coax such citizens home from abroad.

American sources at the United Nations pointed out that Soviet retirement from the Porkkala base will only move the Russian forces 30 miles across the Gulf of Finland, while U.S. withdrawal from Europe would roll the Americans back 3,000 miles or more.

Tacoma Jail Break Leaves 4 At Liberty

Escape Described

The seven attacked Jack Berry, jailer, and Walter Tidwell, radio operator, shortly after 10 p.m. as the two were locking a jail "tank" for the night. Having subdued the two, the men could open two barred doors by operating an electrical control. Tidwell was treated at a hospital for a kick in the eye and a head bruise.

Some of the men apparently hid out and jumped them," Sheriff Bird said.

A few minutes later, Miss Karen Ewing, 13, daughter of the Rev. Everett R. Ewing, and three companions just leaving church services were confronted by the escapees.

She and her three companions were ordered out of the car and the escapees jumped in and raced off, the young people said.

Convicts Aiding Youth In Delinquency Battle

DALLAS (AP)—A group of federal convicts believe they know how to prevent what they say is one cause of juvenile delinquency. They're so enthusiastic they're anteing up from their meager earnings of $10 a month or less to prove their point.

Their special project is Bruce Williams, 10, by no means a juvenile delinquent.

But what chance did he have? His father was dead, his mother ill. He lived in a poverty-stricken part of Dallas noted for its violence and crime.

The convicts are in Seagoville a "minimum security" prison near here. The idea came from the Personal Development Group, a club of about 60 prisoners.

So happy was Bruce with the YMCA membership the money got him, as well as new shoes and clothes, that he wanted to meet his new sponsors.

So Bruce and his mother, now recovered, spent his 10th birthday at the prison. He was showered with presents, many made by the convicts.

He's looking forward to another date this fall. Ralph W. Hendrick, a nine-time loser, has promised to take him to the circus. Hendrick got out of prison last month and says he plans to devote his future to fighting crime and delinquency.

Tickets On Sale Here For TV Fight Showing

Despite heavy advance sale, plenty of tickets are still available for the big screen theater telecast of the Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight title fight, according to Eddie Rivers, publicity representative for Theater Network Television Inc.

The fight, for the world's heavyweight boxing championship, will be staged on the Eugene Armory wide-screen Tuesday, starting at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale locally at Swede's Tavern, 117 N. Stephens St.

A large contingent of Roseburg sports fans is expected to attend the Eugene Armory broadcast along with other groups from Grants Pass, Myrtle Creek, Oakland, Sutherlin and other Umpqua Valley sports, according to Rivers, who was in Roseburg Sunday on his drum-beating tour of the Umpqua and Willamette valleys.

Armory doors will open at 5:30. Fans are requested to be in their seats by 6:15 to witness the introduction of celebrities, officials and to watch the other events which customarily precede a world's championship bout.

Shrine Circus Big Thriller; Last Two Shows Occur Today

One more day remains with performances at 3:15 and 8:15 p.m. today—of the Polack Bros. Shrine Circus' appearance in Roseburg. The circus opened its two-day stand here Sunday, playing before packed grandstands for both the afternoon and evening performances.

Featuring almost all new acts, swiftly and proved highly entertaining. The plaudits of the grandstand were long and loud for the numerous acts, which ranged from the usual acrobatics and aerialists to trained animal performances and clowns.

Mental Defects Topic At Safety Meet Here

As added interest, little Chuckie Follett, honored guest of the Roseburg Shrine Club, sponsor of the program, was driven out in front of the grandstand and introduced to the audience. He responded with a lusty "hello" over the microphone.

While each of the circus acts was individual and separate in itself, one of the most impressive was the head-to-head balancing of Lucia and Gerda Muller of the Chaludis cycling foursome. The two girls performed head-to-head for three minutes, while, crouching, walking about on the stage, up and over a ladder, and then on the shoulders of Karl Schwartzbauer Jr. in a daring cyclist act.

The Nine Ward-Bell Flyers, trapeze artists, were missing this year, but in their place were other aerialist attractions, including Freya Josse, performing on the high trapeze without a net, and other aerial numbers.

Included also was a wild jungle animal act, featuring Prof. George J. Keller, who entered the cage without a gun or whip. Trained dogs, horse, elephant, goats, sea lions and bears performed.

The performance was concluded with a new novelty act, featuring the Dagenham girl pipers, with bagpipes, drums and dancing, and a grand finale, with others of the circus personnel joining in the festive tartan-clad frolic.
