Sutherlin Businesses Change Locations
By MRS. BRITAIN SLACK
The Modern Drug Store has moved to its new location. Fred Waugh, owner and pharmacist, purchased the Schwartz building on Central Avenue. Waugh has been located in the Grabow building for several years. Mrs. Lucille Chase, who has been employed as a sales lady for several years, will continue work in the new location.

New Building
A tile building is being erected on the Green property on Central Avenue. It replaces a wooden building that was built in the late 1909 or 1910.

The building has two plate glass windows and a glass entrance in front. The front part of the building will be the office of Mrs. Hazel Green's Real Estate business. The rear part of the building will have living quarters for Mr. and Mrs. George Green.

Opens Shop
Maurice Vogelphol, a local barber, opened a new barbershop Tuesday morning in the west end of the O. L. Torrey building. Vogelphol sold his building and property on Central Avenue to the Union Oil Co., to make room for expansion and the Union Oil service station on the corner of Central and Calapooia.

For the past year Vogelphol has been employed in the Riley Powers barbershop.
