Dr. And Mrs. Wainscott Observe Golden Wedding

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wainscott, one of Douglas County's prominent couples, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at their beautiful home on Cobb Street. Only the immediate family and close friends attended. Gorgeous arrangements of gold, bronze and white chrysanthemums and white and lavender stock were used about the rooms. Many of the bouquets were sent by friends.

For the occasion, Mrs. Wainscott wore a black afternoon dress and her corsage was a large golden orchid arranged on gold satin ribbons. The occasion marked the seventeenth wedding anniversary of the Wainscotts' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sandquist, who came from Ontario, Ore., for the occasion. Mrs. Sandquist wore a black afternoon frock and a corsage of pink carnations.

The lace-covered serving table was centered with a long arrangement of golden chrysanthemums and tall tapers. The large-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. A. Dillard and Mrs. H. D. McRay. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Leslie Cummings and Mrs. Ada Dick and serving the punch were Mrs. Charles Kash and Mrs. Walter Sandquist. In charge of the guest book was Cheryl Wainscott, only grandchild of the Wainscotts.

Mrs. Wainscott was May E. Lee before her marriage Sept. 24, 1905, in Long Creek, Grant County, Ore., to Dr. Wainscott. Dr. Wainscott was graduated from University of Oregon Medical School in 1908. They moved to Douglas County in 1919 and first settled in Oakland, where Dr. Wainscott practiced medicine. The family moved to Roseburg in 1923, at which time they built a new home on Overlook. Dr. Wainscott practiced medicine until 1945, when he took the full-time position as director of the Douglas County Health Department. A few years ago, Dr. and Mrs. Wainscott sold their residence on Overlook and purchased their present home at Cobb St.

The Wainscotts have a son, Harold C. Wainscott, of Medford, and a daughter, Mrs. Harry Sandquist, Ontario, both of whom were graduated from Roseburg High School. Harold Wainscott is a druggist in Medford. The Harold Wainscotts' 11½ year-old daughter, Cheryl, is the only grandchild of the Dr. Wainscotts. For the golden wedding affair, Mrs. Harold Wainscott wore an afternoon dress of aqua silk print.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Wainscott have a host of friends in Douglas County who wish them many more years of marriage and happiness.
