Donald Brand Guest Speaker For Inter-Se

Inter-Se Study Club met at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Churchill at Glide, at which time Mrs. R. R. Brand, program chairman, introduced her son, Donald Brand, who delighted the members and guests with his talk on "The Musical Dramas of Rogers and Hammerstein."

Mr. Brand's theme was that these two men have developed a unique art which should be properly designated "musical drama" as distinct from grand opera, light opera, musical comedy or musical revue. This idea was illustrated by his comments on the actual stage presentations seen by him and illustrated with musical numbers from the plays.

After the program Mrs. Churchill, assisted by her son, John, served delicious refreshments at a beautifully appointed table. Guests were Donald Brand, George Churchill and sons, John and Frank, and members enjoying the evening with Mrs. Churchill were Mrs. R. B. Brand, Mrs. E. E. Lindell, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. C. H. Friday, Mrs. C. Harold Nichols and Mrs. E. S. Hall.
