

Awards Are Presented To Glide Cub Scout Members

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

The monthly meeting of Glide Cub Scout Pack 112, was held Friday evening in the high school cafeteria. Scoutmaster, Wayne Schermerhorn, led the pack in the pledge of allegiance. Each of the dens, with the exception of dens 3 and 7, presented skits. The theme of the month was "Robin Hood" and the skits depicted certain phases of the Robin Hood stories.

Awards for work the past year were presented by the den mothers: Lion badge to Darrell Celler; Bear badge to Paul Emmons; Pat Christensen and Gerry Kennaday; Gold Arrow badge, Chester Smith; Gold Arrow points, Paul Emmons, Pat Christensen; Silver Arrow points, John DeGroot, Gerry Kennaday, Kenneth Dahack, Robbie Blakely, Clarence Bakken; Denner bars, Paul Emmons, Bill Barker, Richard Balcorn, Darrell Celler, Mike Sabla; Asst. Denner bars, Steve Phillips, Chris Evans, Allen Casebeer, John DeGroot, Raymond Groat, and Hubert Hill.

The meeting closed with the friendship circle and scout pledge. Dens 5 and 6 served refreshments to 100 parents and friends.

Leaving Friday for deer hunting in Eastern Oregon were Taylor McCord and Vern Shrum to LaGrande; Phillip Gibson and son, Marvin; Ben Swain, and Paul Amann to other points.

Mrs. Asa DeGroot returned by plane Wednesday after a three-day shopping trip to Portland.

Bob McEwen of Port Gamble, Wash., arrived by plane Wednesday to visit friends in the North Umpqua area, and his daughter, Mrs. Pat Jones and two grandsons, Martin and Stanley of Sutherlin.

Eugene Concert Series Offerings Are Announced

The 1955-56 concert series offerings of the Eugene Civic Music Assn. were announced this week by CMA President Dr. George Hull, following close of the association's membership drive Saturday.

The series includes two symphony orchestras, a dance group, a choral group and four soloists. They include:

Oct. 29: Mattiwalda Dobbs, coloratura soprano.

Nov. 17: Berline Kammerorchester. It is a small, complete German orchestra of 28 members touring the United States this year.

Dec. 6: Ruggiero Ricci, violinist.

Jan. 17: Miss Maria Tijo, young Serbian pianist, beginning her third season in this country.

Feb. 6: New York Concert Choir of 35 voices under the direction of Margaret Hillis.

Feb. 29: William Primrose, violinist, with the Portland Symphony Orchestra.

April 17: Azuma Kabuki dancers and musicians.

Dr. Hull also announced that the eighth concert would feature a "world-famous baritone" for which the association was awaiting final booking arrangements. He said announcement of the selection would be made in a few days.

Membership cards will be mailed out soon, he added.

Two Roseburg Residents Gallon Blood Donors

Two Roseburg residents became gallon blood donors this week, after answering an emergency call by Douglas County Red Cross blood recruitment chairman Mrs. Walter Britt.

They are Lee Emery and Floyd Walker. Mrs. Britt said the call came this past weekend to help a new mother in need of blood. She said the patient was reported doing "a lot better" Tuesday by hospital personnel.

One other Roseburg man answered the request for "walking" donors. He was Al Barrow. Mrs. Britt estimates that she has a card listing of some 2,000 persons in the county who have previously given blood during RC Bloodmobile visits and who are subsequently placed in a "walking donor" category.

W-D Job's Daughters Initiate Five Girls

Bethel 53, Winston — Dillard Jobs Daughters, initiated five new members at their last meeting. They were Clyda Murray, Donna Moore, Linda Richardson, Lorraine Fisher and Karen Owens.
