The little girl who goes to dance school

...learns to move gracefully. And she is never bored. Never embarrassed. Because she is taught that social poise which will carry her through life so much more confidently.

Only here, in the stimulating experience of the dance class, will she develop a sense of delightful, individual accomplishment as well as the posture, rhythm, the co-ordination, the poise, that make a youngster into a better social being—graceful, gracious, self-assured.

That sense of public appearance, that lovely poise and graceful confidence in meeting new people, new situations—these are some of the rewards for the little girl who goes to dance school. Your daughter has the potentialities. It is only a matter of giving her the opportunity. Don't let her miss this chance. Right now, why not come in and talk it over. Together we can find the class that offers just the right instruction for your little girl.
