

OF SPECIAL INTEREST to her many Roseburg friends is the career of Jeanne Maddox, whose stage name is Jeanne Lyle. Jeanne was born in Roseburg and attended school here, before going with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Maddox, to Yoncalla and later to Astoria. At the age of 14, she owned and operated her own dance studio, which is now being conducted by two of her advanced students. Jeanne has just completed an eight weeks engagement at the Moulin Rouge in Hollywood, where she did two shows nightly and danced in six productions every show. She is now appearing with the Dorothy Darben Dancers at Bimbo's 365 Club in San Francisco, where she has a six weeks engagement. Jeanne's two grandmothers, Mrs. B. R. Maddox and Mrs. W. West, both reside in Roseburg. Jeanne poses in the picture above and below in costumes she wears in her latest numbers. (Pictures by John E. Reed Hollywood).
