England Council Decides To Quarantine Families

WEST BROMWICH, England.—The City Council has decided to "quarantine" 60 quarrelsome and slovenly families now occupying city-owned houses.

Visits In Portland — Miss Marilyn Kyer visited with relatives in Portland this past weekend.

Return — Herb Sullivan and Jake Neal returned from a 3-day hunt in the Bend area recently.

George Jones, deputy chairman of the Housing Committee, said the plan is to buy a run-down block and move into it all city-housed families who quarrel with neighbors, live in dirty conditions, or are chronically late with the rent.

"Then," he explained, "they can fight it out among themselves. And if they improve, they will be moved to better places."
