

Local News

Hunting — William T. Evans of this city is spending the week on a hunting trip.

Go To John Day — Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Marshall of Roseburg are spending a few days in John Day attending to business.

Enjoy Meeting — Mrs. Sadie Baker and Mrs. Edwin Barnes of Roseburg made a trip to Medford last Thursday to attend a meeting of the state board of Blue Star Mothers.

Go To California — James Simmons and son, Harvey, left last week for Southern California. They will visit relatives and friends in the area. On their return home, Harvey will leave for Portland to take his physical examination for the Navy, having enlisted recently.

Return Here — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carstens have returned here, following a business trip to The Dalles.

Visitor Expected — Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman, 325 West Berdine St., that the former's uncle, James Soules, expects to visit in Roseburg. Soules, a former Roseburg resident, will probably arrive Saturday.

McKee Family Returns — Mr. and Mrs. Paulus McKee and daughter, Carol, and son, Dickie, have returned to their home in Roseburg, following a 3-day stay in Portland, where the former attended to business. They were accompanied home for a visit by Mr. McKee's mother, Mrs. Florence McKee, of Eugene.

Attend Reunion — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Freeman and daughters, Eleanor, Karen and Joanne spent the weekend in Salem at the home of Mrs. Freeman's mother, Mrs. Janie Fawc. The trip was for the purpose of attending a family reunion held Sunday at the Oak Grove area near Salem. More than 50 members of the Freeman family were present.

Visit At Creamer Home — Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Engelauf of Riverside, Calif., have left for points north, following a stop in Roseburg to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Creamer. The Creamers are former residents of Riverside. Mrs. Engelauf belongs to the Creamer-Cox VFW Auxiliary in Riverside, which was named for the Creamers' son. Mrs. Engelauf is a news correspondent for the Riverside Press newspaper.

Back From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Denny have returned to their home at 123 E. Pleasant St., following a trip to Portland to enter four of their Siamese cats in the annual 2-day cat show. Their chocolate point kitten, "Juliette," imported from London, England, won the rosette for the best kitten in the show and the trophy for the best short-haired kitten. The Denny's (male cat, "Timothy") which had won the trophy in London as the best kitten in the show there, won second and third places. The mother cat, "Shanling Dien," imported from Canada a year ago, won a second place, and the Denny's 3-month-old kitten, "Tink of Umpqua," won fourth place. The Denny's raise the Siamese cat as a family hobby. There were 248 cats entered in the 2-day show held Oct. 15-16 in the Municipal Arena in Portland.
