Elkton Couple Fails To Beat Stork's Arrival

By MRS. ARIEL HUBBARD
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sneed, who live three miles south of Elkton on highway 225, failed to beat the stork. Starting out for a Cottage Grove hospital, they decided time was too short and stopped at Mrs. Sneed's mother's home, Mrs. Viva Dement in Elkton.
The baby girl, Judy Kaye, weight 7 1/2 pounds, arrived at 10:15 p.m. Oct. 17. A doctor who visited mother and baby later announced both doing fine.
Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman have been visiting in Spokane, Wash., with Ronnie Henderer and Leroy Henderer and families.
Maude McClay and Jennie Haines are staying at the Charles Solomon home while the Solomons are on a hunting trip.
Del Dungey has been hired as new high school teacher in Elkton. He is teaching science, math and boys P.E. Dungey will continue to live in Drain.
Lorena and Ann Binder spent holiday days in Elkton this last week. Ann is attending high school near Orick, Calif.

ALL SMILES—Actress Jane Withers, 29, and Kenneth Errior, 27, a member of a singing group, "The Four Freshmen," look over their application for marriage license in Los Angeles Oct. 13. The couple plans to be married Sunday aboard a friend's yacht at Newport Beach, Calif. It will be Errior's first marriage and the second for Miss Withers, a former child star. (AP Wirephoto).

Special Study Class Draws Overflow Crowd
CORVALLIS (AP)—A special free time class on "study hints" drew an overflow crowd Wednesday at Oregon State College.
The class, taught by Dr. N. D. Marksheffel, assistant professor of education, attracted nearly 300 students. Some 25 stood up to hear the discussion after all the chairs in the chemistry lecture room had been filled.
The class is the first in a series of three planned this month by Marksheffel, who is a specialist in this field. The other two are scheduled Oct. 26 and 27. They are held during open periods so all interested students may attend.
