

North Douglas Grange Holds Booster Night

By RUBY MEACHAM
The North Douglas Grange held their booster night Friday. The hall was decorated to represent harvest time.
Five members from other granges were present: Mr. and Mrs. Claud Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rydell of the Sunnydale Grange, and Frank Zuelliger of the Oregon Grange wholesale. There were also 23 members of the grange and about 80 visitors, making well over 100 present for the meeting.
Refreshments were served by the grange ladies.

Mrs. Max (Irene) Ames won a award certificate of merit from the Ceramic Art Magazine for "giving the most to ceramics." One award is given in the state each month for this work.
Walter Land of Kokmo, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Norval Land and daughter, Sylvia, of Portland, arrived Friday evening for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson and family. Walter Land is an uncle of Mrs. Nelson, while Norval Land is a cousin. Mrs. Nelson's uncle plans on staying a week while the others visited over the weekend.
Last reports on Edwin Becker say that he is able to have visitors now and improving right along so may be able to leave the hospital in about 10 days. Alvin Allen is also improving slowly, and is now able to eat food. It is not known yet how soon he can leave the hospital.

Portland Council Votes
Next Tuesday On Center
PORTLAND — The City Council will vote next Tuesday on Delta Park as the site for Portland's proposed eight million dollar sports center.
The vote — expected to be a rejection — was scheduled for this week Tuesday, but was postponed because two members of the site-selection committee were unable to attend.
Three members of the five-man council have announced their opposition to the site on grounds that the park is too far from the city center and that sub-soil is not firm enough to support large buildings.

Jap War Criminals Get Permit To Build Statue

TOKYO — Japanese war criminals still held in Sugamo Prison have received permission to erect a bronze statue in front of Tokyo's main railway station as a symbol of peace.
Kyodo news service said the 11-foot nude male, with arms stretched heavenward, would be unveiled Nov. 3.
The war criminals paid for the $5,500 statue, by famed Japanese sculptor Yoshisumi Yokoe, out of funds received from the sale of a book containing the wills and last farewells of Japanese executed as war criminals by Allied powers.
