West Virginia Resident Visits Melrose Relatives

By NETTIE WOODRUFF
Mrs. M. D. Johnson of West Virginia is visiting for several weeks at the home of her son, James Flynn, and family of Melrose. She was met by her son and her grandson, Jimmy, Saturday in Portland, after having arrived there by train.
Mrs. George Showers accompanied the Flynn's to Portland and went on to Seattle to visit a week with her daughter, Mrs. James Bateman.
To Klamath Falls
David Damon, Joe Sand and Keran Turner went to Klamath Falls Saturday to bring the latter's grandmother, Mrs. C. DeLap, to the R. E. Turner home in Winston. She has been visiting relatives in Klamath Falls for some time.
Karelee Hofman was chosen queen by the Melrose School students to rule at the annual carnival, held Saturday evening. Princesses in her court included Donna Roe, Sherrie Simmons, Nicki Birtch and Cindy Ellis. A large crowd attended the affair.
Mrs. G. B. Birtch met the call donated by Dale Busenbark. Other prizes winners were Jack Ledbetter, Kenny Rogers, Larry Flynn and Dennis Sjogren.
Leaving Sunday to deer hunt near LaPine were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conn and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Conn and Gary, Lee and Jim Conn.
Moving to this area recently were Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Goetz and family, formerly of Calkins Road.
To Los Angeles
Frank Hunter left Tuesday for his Los Angeles home following a summer's stay with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ryther. The latter couple's son, Tom Ryther, is spending a 30-day sick leave with his parents, from his work with Capitol Airlines in Baltimore, Md. He is employed as a flight engineer for jet transports. He was in a recent accident and suffered a burned back.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gross and family took their grandfather, Tom Foster to White Salmon, Wash., during the weekend. He is from Sacramento and will visit Mrs. Gross's parents. He spent several days here at the Gross home. A hunting trip was enjoyed by the group while in Washington.
Richard Lindstrom spent the weekend in Corvallis, where he visited his brother, Jack, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kramb, Elsa Smith and John Kookken spent the weekend hunting near Lakeview.
