

Three PCC Tilts On Tap Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
West Coast football moves into the back stretch of the 1955 race this weekend with Pacific Coast Conference action taking the spotlight from inter-sectional activity for the first time.

Three conference clashes are on the Saturday slate and two have a definite bearing on the championship. A pair of intersectionals and a backyard battle between two strong independents wrap up the mid-October schedule.

The top PCC tilts match Stanford against Washington at Seattle and Southern California against California at Berkeley. The three pairs Washington State and Oregon State at Corvallis.

As usual, a Friday night game at Los Angeles puts the show on the road. Friday night's clash between UCLA and Iowa once was billed as a possible Rose Bowl preview. But the Big Ten Hawkeys have been a disappointment. Oregon goes to Arizona for a Saturday night non-conference contest and San Jose State entertains arch-rival College of the Pacific. Idaho, beaten five straight times, has an open date.

Stanford, still seeking its first conference win, will throw the best passing offense against the Huskies' second best aerial defense. The Indians' have averaged 129 yards a game overhead while Washington has limited its foes to a modest 76. The Huskies, with southpaw Sandy Lederman reinstated as second-string quarterback, need a fourth triumph to remain deadlocked with UCLA for the league lead.

Third-running Southern California presumably gets a soft touch in California. The young Bears, who looked to be improving, slumped to a 21-0 shutout by Oregon last week while the Trojans were belting Wisconsin. The only hope at Berkeley was that the team would become fired up by campus criticism of Coach Pappy Waldorf and the squad.

Neither Washington State nor Oregon State has a finger in the title action, but both are eager for a second conference triumph and the game should be close.

UCLA, scared by a second-half Stanford spurge a week ago, is expected to go all-out against the Hawkeys, who have been clobbered by Wisconsin and tied by Purdue in Big Ten play. A Bruin win would give the PCC a 4-2 bulge over Big Ten opposition.

Oregon needs a victory over Arizona to maintain overall inter-sectional superiority for the Coast. In 17 games, PCC teams have won only eight.

Matthews Back In Boxing After Short Retirement

VANCOUVER, B.C. — It's back to the boxing ring for Harry (Kid) Matthews who "retired" after his loss to England's Don Cockell last year.

Promoter Earle Kalani said Thursday the Seattle Kid has agreed to come out of retirement for a match Nov. 3 with Murray Bennett of Chicago.

The two fought at Spokane a year ago. Matthews won by a decision.

Semifinal over best of three falls or 30-minute route pits Buck Weaver against Johnny Demchuck. John Paul Henning and Thor Hagen tangle in one-fall main event. Tickets on sale at Powells.

Caribou Herds Being Stalked

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — Stalked by wolves and besieged by hunters, caribou continued to surge across the Taylor Highway by the hundreds Friday seeking their winter feeding grounds in Northern Alaska.

The herd, estimated by the Fish and Wildlife Service to exceed 30,000, is migrating from near the Canadian boundary to its natural wintering ground in remote mountainous country northeast of here.

While unpredictable caribou herds often cross Alaska highway, this is one of the few times thousands of the animals have made themselves convenient to hunters during the short caribou season.

And hundreds of hunters from all parts of the territory are taking advantage of the good shooting. Hunters from larger cities are joining native Indian families to harvest the meat.

Former World's Flyweight Champ Succumbs At Bar

PHILADELPHIA — Joseph Loscalzo, 45, former world's flyweight boxing champion, collapsed and died Wednesday while sitting at the bar of a downtown cafe.

Loscalzo, who fought under the name of Midget Wolgast, held the title from 1930 to 1935. He continued boxing through 1938.

Crucial College Games On Tap This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
College football heads into the second half of its 1955 schedule this weekend, and most conference championships and the big New Year's Day bowl games are far from settled. But the men are being separated from the boys, and a lot of light is beginning to filter through the shadows.

One of the major games tomorrow involving conference rivals brings together Oklahoma, perennial champs of the Big Seven, and Colorado, both undefeated. Oklahoma is favored, although if there is any Big Seven team with a chance to beat them out of an Orange Bowl assignment it's Colorado.

Maryland, which is expected to represent the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Orange Bowl, will have a scrap on its hands against once-beaten Syracuse in another big battle of the day.

Michigan, the nation's No. 1 team just ahead of Maryland, has its eyes on the Rose Bowl. However, the Wolverines have a bit of business this week with Minnesota in the Big Ten Conference scramble.

Wisconsin, tied at the top of the Big Ten heap with Michigan, must knock off Ohio State Saturday to remain in the running.

Clemson got the weekend rolling yesterday with a 28-14 Atlantic Coast Conference decision over South Carolina. The victory, decided in the first period when Clemson's Joe Pagliari scored twice, put the Tigers in a first place tie with Maryland with a 2-0 record.

There are five big games on tonight and one will be watched with interest, although it has no bearing on conference or bowl bids. UCLA, a favorite for the Pacific Coast Conference title and the Rose Bowl job if it can get past Washington later, goes outside the bathhouse to meet Iowa of the Big Ten.
