

THE SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence K. Rand was celebrated at several delightful affairs, after their return from an extended vacation trip. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence K. Rand, who were married in Roseburg Oct. 4, 1930, and who have both resided in Roseburg all of their lives, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary by taking a trip through Yellowstone Park to Billings, Mont., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burge and children, Billy and Barbara, cousins of Mr. Rand, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Vankoten and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Van Koten of Great Falls, Mont., and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, and daughters, Joyce and Joan, and son, Larry.

A surprise party followed at the Rand residence at 345 W. Liburn St., at 3 p.m. The attractively decorated table, arranged by Mrs. Clara Harvey and the hostess, Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Rand, and daughters, Joyce and Joan, and son, Larry, were beautifully decorated with a profusion of golden chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

A cake decorated in white and gold flowers centered the refreshment table. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. E. A. Shurtliff, Mrs. Guy Conley, Mrs. Joe Ledgewood and Mrs. John Wilson. Assisting them were Mrs. Dailey, their daughter; Mrs. Ralph Shurtliff, Mrs. Ted Shurtliff and Mrs. H. M. Shurtliff Jr., daughters-in-law of the honored couple, and Mrs. George Heath, Sheila Ann Shurtliff, Joanne Shurtliff and Lynda Dailey, granddaughters of the couple. All wore lovely corsages of carnations and roses.

Besides the honored couple, heading the reception line were their three sons, H. M. Shurtliff, Jr., Ralph Shurtliff, and Ted Shurtliff, and their son-in-law, J. L. Dailey. Guests who attended the reception from afar were: R. B. Hall, with the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad C. Jones of Roseburg were honored at a delightful reception Saturday evening at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Jones on South Deer Creek. The evening was spent listening to instrumental music and tape recordings. The hostess, Mrs. Jones, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Derwood Oar, served delicious dessert refreshments at the close of the pleasant evening. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride couple who were married at the Portland, Sept. 24. The bride is a long time resident of Deer Creek and Dillard.

Mrs. Tilton Attends Work Shop In New York

New York — Mrs. Ellsworth M. Tilton, 124 South Kane, Roseburg, is one of 40 Methodist women attending an 8-day workshop in New York on national and world problems and what the Christian woman can do about them. Mrs. Tilton is the wife of the pastor of The First Methodist Church in Roseburg.

The workshop is sponsored by the Woman's Division of Christian Service, which includes about two million Methodist women throughout the United States, through its Department of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities.

After studying and discussing various social, political and religious issues, the women will return to their home areas to direct similar workshops for Methodist women in ten cities across the country. Questions to be studied include housing, desegregation, the United Nations, juvenile delinquency and relations among churches throughout the world.

Speakers included U.N. officials, executives of the National Council of Churches, college professors, Christian women from overseas churches and representatives of social and religious agencies in New York. The group took a guided tour of the United Nations October 15.

Mrs. Tilton is one of several women who will direct a workshop at Missoula, Mont., April 4 to 6. She returned home Oct. 18.

A SOUTH SEAS THEME was carried out at the delightful rush party held by members of Beta Xi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Myrtle Creek. Wednesday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Kenneth Winston. Left to right, Shirley Millar, Lois Onn, Pauline Engel and Vera Bradford.

Beta Xi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Myrtle Creek, held its annual "Rush Party" at the lovely home of Mrs. Kenneth Winston Wednesday evening. The theme of the party was "A Touch of the South Seas." Mrs. Robert Trenholm, vice president of the sorority, was hostess. Upon arrival guests were impressed by the outstanding decorations made by Mrs. Frank Finkel. The dining room table portrayed a scene of Hawaii with a desert island, a little grass hut, dancers, monkeys and palm trees waving over the miniature island. The beige drapes were decorated with big orange and white blossoms. Flowers of different hues of lavender, yellow, pink and white bedecked the fireplace. On one end of the mantel was a large basket of fruit; on the other, a ukulele with blossoms lying about. An artificial palm tree graced one corner and murals depicting Hawaiian life were mounted around the room. The guests were dressed in various costumes of the South Seas. There were beach-combers, tourists, hula girls and a missionary. Each woman was presented with a Hawaiian lei. Mrs. Claude Engle won the prize for most appropriate costume.

Mrs. George Heath and Mrs. Charles Brown provided entertainment. Mrs. Heath presented a Hawaiian dance, the hula. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Heath did a pantomime "Wild Bill Hiccup." Games were played and refreshments were served to round out the enjoyable evening.

Honored guests were: Mrs. Frank Marel, Mrs. Albert Kolb, Mrs. Robert Greshny, Mrs. J. E. Moller, Mrs. Joe Sobole, Mrs. John McNutt, Mrs. Claude Engle, Mrs. Ken Winston, Mrs. Donald Croucher, Mrs. Charles Brown and Mrs. Robert Trenholm, hostess.
