

MR. AND MRS. PAUL BERTRAM SLYWESTER, above, cut the traditional first piece of their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage Oct. 8 at Zion Lutheran Church in Oakland, Calif. The reception followed at The Oakland Club. The bride, Nadine Barnes, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Barnes of Oakland and the bridegroom is the eldest son of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter A. Sylvester of Roseburg. The bridegroom's brother, Theodore, of Reseda, Calif., went to Oakland to act as best man at the wedding. (Picture by Mac Iver Studio, Alameda, Calif.).

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg took place Oct. 8 at Zion Lutheran Church in Oakland, Calif., when Miss Nadine Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Barnes of Oakland, became the bride of Paul Bertram Sylvester, eldest son of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter A. Sylvester, Roseburg. The Rev. A. A. Levenhagen, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, performed the impressive ceremony at 2 p.m. in the presence of 19 friends and relatives.

As the guests assembled, Ewald Sylvester, uncle of the bridegroom, played softly on the pipe organ. Mr. Sylvester also played the traditional wedding marches. Tall white cathedral candles and floor baskets of white gladioli and white stock formed the setting for the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin fashioned floor-length with a chapel sweep. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of pleated lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid tied with a shower of satin ribbons knotted with bouvardia.

Mrs. R. D. Smith of Hayward, Calif., was matron of honor and wore a periwinkle blue nylon net and lace waist-length gown with a hat of white lace and blue forget-me-nots. She carried pale pink carnations and blue delphinium.

MRS. BRIGHT HONORED AT RECENT SHOWER

A very lovely pink and blue shower was at the home of Mrs. Jean Gurney, Milwood Drive, Umpqua, with Mrs. Jane Bright as honored guest. A potluck dinner was served at noon, and places were set for Esther Mohr, Roberta Coffey, Flo Ruppstein, Esther Cooper, Thelma Leonard, Helen Liles, Eunice Cline, Sadie McKinney, Hazel Judd, Pearl Grier, Evio Gurney, Milly Judd and Lucinda Gurney. Those unable to attend but sending gifts were Ollie Peery, Shirley Judd, Joyce Briggs, Blanche Stroop, Catherine Peery and Thelma Stroop.

A PARTY was given in honor of Kim Wissing on his second birthday Oct. 15 at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lashua, in Winston. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations. After opening his gifts, refreshments were served. Enjoying the party with Kim were Susan and Craig Neustal, Brad and Linda Powell, David Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wissing (Kim's parents), and Mr. and Mrs. Lashua. Miss Marianne Hakanson, daughter of Mrs. Guy Peeler of Oakland, became the bride of Dr. Warren A. Kadas of Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kadas of Winchester, recently from Farmington, Minn., at a beautiful ceremony Sunday, Oct. 23 at 2 p.m.

Dr. Homer M. Noble officiated at the wedding which took place at Oakland Community Presbyterian Church. White chrysanthemums and autumn leaves formed the church decorations. Mrs. R. D. Bridges was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, J. E. Stearns, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white crystal with lace inserts, and fingertip veil held in place with a matching cap. Her bridal bouquet was of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Priscilla Tennis of McMinnville was maid of honor and wore a bronze crystal dress with matching chrysanthemums. Candle lighter was Miss Joan Miller of Salem, who wore a purple gown and bronze chrysanthemum corsage. Gordon Whittier of Redmond, a former school mate of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were John, Irving, Martin and Ralph Hakanson, all brothers of the bride.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Guy Peeler, for about 80 relatives and close friends. The serving table was covered with a cloth of gold and white and an arrangement of gold chrysanthemums and candles. The wedding cake was cut and served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, and Mrs. L. F. Stearns poured. Mrs. Martin Hakanson had charge of the guest book. Assisting were Mrs. Irving Hakanson, Mrs. John Hakanson and Mrs. H. E. Richter of Coos Bay.

Surprise Welcome Home Party Given Saturday

A surprise welcome home party early Saturday evening sponsored by families of the Canyonville Church of Christ honored Vernon Eugene Sutton who retired from the Navy after 29 years service. Sutton, whose last duty with the Navy was near San Francisco, returned home last week to his wife and children, Sylvia, Elizabeth and Buster.

Given at the Sutton home on the Shoestring road near Riddle, the party featured a double-decker angel food cake with "Welcome Home Sailor" written on it as well as other refreshments furnished by different ladies of the Church of Christ. Following the serving of the dessert, the children in the group played games and the adults enjoyed a fellowship.

Included were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Landy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Campbell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hicks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Serrano and family, Mrs. Raymond Carson and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Reynolds and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Nichols and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Van Horn and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barlow and family.

AFTERNOON PARTY FETES JOHNNY CARSON
The tenth birthday of Johnny Carson was the occasion for an afternoon party to which 14 of his friends and neighbors were invited last Wednesday.

Mrs. R. D. Carson was hostess at the party for her son at which several games with prizes as well as novelties provided diversion for the guests, after which refreshments were served.

MOTHERS CLUB HAS SOCIAL EVENING
Mrs. L. A. Burbach entertained members of the Southern Oregon Mothers Club at her home Thursday evening. A humorous skit was presented by members of the club. Refreshments with a Halloween motif were served by Mrs. Burbach, assisted by Mrs. Jay Conn.

After opening the many love gifts the bride and bridegroom left on a short honeymoon trip down the coast and into California and Nevada. They will live at Culp Creek where the bridegroom is employed.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT BALLENGER, above, cut the first piece of their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage Aug. 26. The bride, Pauline Graham, of Boise, Idaho, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Graham, of this city. The bridegroom, a resident of Dunsuir, Calif., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ballenger of Kansas City, Mo. The wedding took place in Boise, Idaho, at the First Church of Christ with the Rev. Kenneth Beckman officiating.

At a beautiful ceremony at the First Church of Christ in Boise, Idaho, Miss Pauline Graham of Boise and Robert Ballenger of Dunsuir, Calif., were united in marriage at 8 p.m., Aug. 26. The wedding was performed by the Rev. Kenneth Beckman in the presence of 100 friends and relatives. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Graham of this city and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ballenger of Kansas City, Mo.

Traditional piano music was played by Mrs. Bob Ballard, Jerome, Idaho; Florence Rossow, Boise, was the violinist; Juanita Perry, Halfway, Ore., sang "God Gave Me You" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was charming in a gown of white satin over lace with a chapel-length train and fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of pink roses with a cascade of white stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Beckman of Boise, wore white frosted nylon over blue with head dress to match and carried pink gladioli. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Ray Weideman, Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Tony Cicero, Florence, Ore., wore blue frosted nylon over blue with white headresses. They carried nosegays of white carnations and pink roses. Candle lighters Miriam Berkman and Roxie Potter, both of Boise, were dressed in white dotted Swiss and wore pink rosebud corsages.

Mrs. Graham, mother of the bride, wore pink lace over tulle with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ballenger, wore navy blue with avocado accessories. Both had corsages of white roses.

William Flenor of Dunsuir, Calif., was best man and Richard Scott and Carl Peterson, both of Boise, were ushers. Kent Beckman, Boise, was ring bearer.

At the reception which followed the wedding, in the church hall, Mrs. Vyron Fender of San Francisco had charge of the guest book; Elmina Frazier, Boise, and Mrs. William Marriott, Centerville, Wash., presided over the gift table. Marjorie Tedrow, Coos Bay, Ore., served the wedding cake and a charming luncheon Monday at Gaylord Lodge. In compliment to Miss Elsie Sandman of New Orleans, additional guests were Miss Sandman's sister, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, and Mrs. George L. Wadsworth.

Miss Sandman spent two weeks visiting here at the Amiot home. She spent part of this week in Sacramento visiting her niece, Mrs. James Lorigan, and family, and left yesterday for her home in New Orleans.

MRS. BIELMAN ENTERTAINS AT DESSERT LUNCHEON
Chrysanthemums and dahlias and the Halloween motif were used by Mrs. Olga Bielman Tuesday when she entertained the Tiltam Bridge Club at a one o'clock dessert luncheon at her home in West Sutherland.
