Working In Studio — Mrs. Nicholas Lehrbach has accepted a position at Koop's Modern Photography Studio.

Attend Dinner Meeting — Going from the Douglas County State Bank to Eugene Wednesday night for the bankers dinner meeting were E. G. Young, Beryl Frazier, John Kort, N. L. Bibler and C. E. (Pat) Manning.

Business Trip — Frank N. Addison, manager of Douglas Durocleaners, returned here Wednesday after a two-day business trip to Portland. Addison made the trip in order to secure a franchise on the new Air-Kem process.

Back From Medford — Mr. and Mrs. Horace C. Berg have returned to their home in Laurelwood, following a trip to Medford Tuesday to attend the second birthday party celebration of their grandson, Jon Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sears.

With Insurance Company — Irwin N. Klein, formerly with the State Unemployment Commission, is now an agent with the State Farm Mutual Insurance Co. here. He has been assigned the Myrtle Creek, Canyonville and Riddle areas.

Go To Springfield — Mr. and Mrs. Rex Walker and Mrs. Raymond Parslow of Roseburg drove to Springfield Sunday to attend a potluck affair at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammond and family and Mrs. Dale Archer and children. The Roseburg residents returned here Sunday night.

Attend Meeting — Edyth Gilmore, Laura Hies, Ada Jane Dick, Goldie Brunn, Mary Chapman, Ione Schaeffer, Matilda Rapel, Maude Kidder and Myrtle Baker of Roseburg drove to Myrtle Creek Tuesday night to hear Miss Bess Clough of Canyonville give a talk on her trip to Europe at a meeting of the Myrtle Creek Business and Professional Women's Club.

To Treasure Island — Pvt. John A. Steiner, U. S. Marine Corps, left Saturday for Treasure Island, Calif., after spending a two-week leave visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Steiner, and his brother, Russell Steiner, who was graduated from Roseburg High School this year, has been stationed at Camp Pendleton, San Diego, Calif., and will now attend electronics school at Treasure Island.

Return To Roseburg — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Backen Jr. are back at their home after a week's trip to California. They drove to Eugene where they took the Shasta Daylight for San Francisco. From there they went to Los Angeles where Backen attended to business matters connected with the Douglas Electric Cooperative Inc. Both Mr. and Mrs. Backen visited relatives in the area.

Visit Here — Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Garold Childers and small son, Earl, and the former's mother, Mrs. E. Earl Childers, were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Warner and Mrs. J. E. Inman. Col. Childers and family have recently returned from three years' service in Germany and are now on their way to Formosa. He is an atomic weapons specialist in the U. S. Army and will act in an advisory capacity. Childers, a former Eugene man, is a cousin of Mrs. Warner.

Exhibits Picture — Mrs. Francis (Mildred) Griffin of Roseburg has one of her heavy oil paintings on display this week at Koop's Modern Photography Studio on Cass Street. Mrs. Griffin studied under the noted German artist, Hans Von Hoffman, in Munich, Germany. Her oil painting on exhibit is of the Redwoods. Mrs. Griffin mixes her own special paints for her pictures. Her husband is employed by Lockwood Motor Co.

Chosen By Honorary — Miss Paula Helweg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Helweg of Roseburg, is one of 15 senior girls at Oregon State College chosen by Omicron Nu, national senior women's honorary in home economics, at Oregon State College. The girls are chosen for grades as well as leadership.

Former Resident — Colley A. Reed, 41, Klamath Falls, who was killed in his private plane Monday night near Canby, is a former Roseburg resident. He attended local schools and made his home here for a number of years. Reed was a lumber buyer for Adams Lumber Co. of Lakeview.

Visits Here — Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bruley have returned to their home at Bar Harbor near Tillamook, following a visit here with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hill. They were accompanied home by their 3-year-old granddaughter, Gayle Hill, who will visit there over the weekend.
