

Marjorie Smith Plans To Collect Insurance Benefits

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP)—Mrs. Marjorie Smith has requested a certificate of her marriage to attorney Kermit Smith here Feb. 4 so she can collect his war service life insurance and other veterans' benefits.

Clark County Auditor Bruce Worthington said Wednesday he had received the request, dated Nov. 14, just 10 days after Mrs. Smith, 34, had been acquitted of the car bomb slaying of her husband, also 34.

Worthington said he was forwarding the certificate. He said the two applied for a marriage license Jan. 28.

In Portland the Oregon Department service office of the American Legion said it had sent the request, explaining that the marriage certificate was necessary for her to claim the benefits and collect the insurance.

The office reported it did not know the amount of the policy but said she was eligible, as a widow, for a monthly service-connected disability payment of $50.40 plus something for one of her two children.

ROSEBURG LADY LIONS hosted a group of visually handicapped persons here Wednesday. Standing are Lady Lions Mrs. Florence McBee and Mrs. Phil Harth. TVA Celebrates Completion Of Largest Steam Plant

KINGSTON, Tenn. (AP)—A celebration Thursday marked completion of what the Tennessee Valley Authority calls the world's largest steam plant for generating electricity.

Equipment delays have postponed actual completion of the plant until later in the month, but employees already had scheduled the celebration so TVA decided to let 'er rip.

The Kingston steam plant will be the fourth which TVA has put in full operation since 1951. It was built principally to satisfy the tremendous power demands of atomic installations at nearby Oak Ridge. Three other steam plants are under construction.

The plant will burn a 50-ton earload of coal every six minutes, or enough to heat four good-sized homes in Knoxville all winter. Its total annual coal consumption will be more than four million tons.

It will use more than one million gallons of water per minute, more than is used for all purposes in New York City, in its nine steam condensers and other water-cooled equipment.

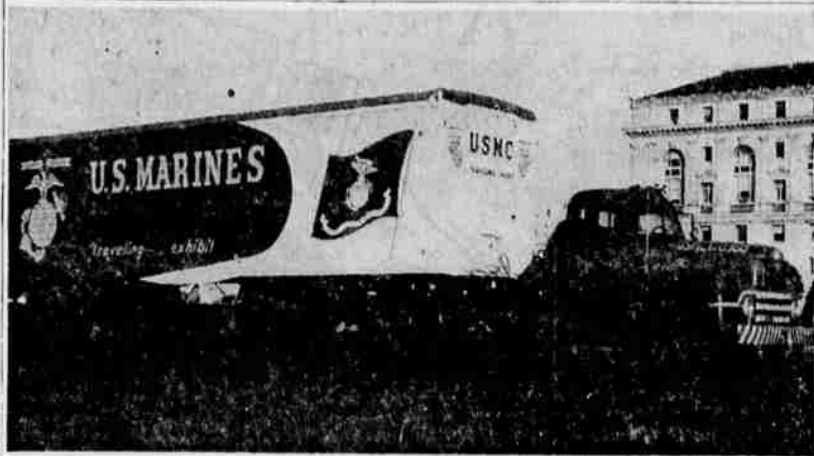

It cost nearly 200 million dollars, and required more than 22 million man-hours of planning, designing and construction.

It will have a rated capacity of 1,600,000 kilowatts energy, 15 times the capacity of Norris Dam, TVA's first hydroelectric facility which was completed 19 years ago. Even this, however, is 400,000 kilowatts short of Oak Ridge power needs, and the remainder is made up by other TVA facilities.

When the Kingston plant's ninth and last generating unit goes into operation, it will boost TVA's steam-generating capacity to a total of more than five million kilowatts. This compares with a total hydro capacity of the agency's system of about 3½ million kilowatts.

The plant has been producing at part-capacity since the first unit

Police Rescue Hunter, Also Retrieve Dead Duck
EUGENE (AP)—Alan Carter, Eugene, got his duck Wednesday, but he wouldn't go through it all again.

He shot from the bank of the Willamette River, and the duck landed in the water. Carter went after it in a rubber boat, but somehow punched a hole in the bottom. Down went the boat, and Carter with it.

He managed to struggle to an island, and there spent a shivering hour until he attracted attention.

A layer of ice hampered rescue operations, but eventually police got Carter to safety. They also retrieved the duck, and Carter went home.
