CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

LONDON — A call went out this week for 130 of Britain's policemen to volunteer for service in riot-ridden Cyprus. British police are unarmored on duty. A Colonel Office spokesman said it was hoped the police, with their reputation for calm but firm handling of difficult crowds would have a "steadying effect" on the population on the Mediterranean island.

FIREMEN FOIL SUICIDE — Would-be-suicide Armand Escalante, 30, is spotted (left) teetering on the roof of 12-story Veteran's Administration Building in San Francisco. After police and a priest failed to coax him from his perch, a Veterans Administration doctor (top right) takes over but also fails. Finally, more than an hour later, firemen manage to grab Escalante (lower right) after tricking him with an offer of a bottle of whiskey. He said his wife had left him. In hospital for observation, Escalante said his wife leaving him caused suicide attempt.

FOR DISSOLUTION OF THE GREEN SANITARY DISTRICT NOV. 22!

REAL ESTATE SPECULATORS ARE THE ONLY ONES WHO STAND TO GAIN ON A SEWER IN THE GREEN DISTRICT AT THESE PROHIBITIVE PRICES!

Those residents living in the District for as little as 4 or 5 years have witnessed a steady and orderly growth in our community. We have ample reason to believe in the CONTINUED growth of our community; and with the added growth, it should be possible in the very near future, by following more realistic lines, to have sewers in Green at a sensible cost to the average homeowner in the District.
