Dixonville Man Is Injured In Accident

By JEAN RADCLIFFE

Richard Baldwin, North Umpqua Highway, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin received injuries Saturday at Bobs Wrecking on South Stevens Street, where he is employed.

He was caught between a car and the wrecker and his body was mashed badly. Mrs. Baldwin reported Monday that his condition was "not too good."

From Reedsport

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Karcher and children of Reedsport were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Karcher and sons.

Mrs. Blayne Flora left Monday to spend a few days visiting her brother in Portland, Harold Hollis and family. Blayne Jr., is staying with the Al Radcliffe family while she is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kinyon and sons, returned home Sunday from a week's trip to San Diego, Calif. They were guests of Kinyon's father, J. F. Kinyon, in that city, and also visited other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Kahanani, Eugene, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Krueger and family Monday. Gordon Roselund, who attends school at Corvallis was also a visitor of the Kruegers and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Powell, Eugene, spent the weekend with the T. E. Beall family.

Activities Noted For Days Creek Schools

By JEAN YODER

Days Creek School Superintendent Marien Yoder attended the Oregon Schools Activities Assn. meeting in Portland recently. He served as a delegate for "B" schools of Douglas, Curry and Coos counties.

The Days Creek Band Parents Assn. added $58 to the uniform fund with a turkey shoot held prior to Thanksgiving.

Turkeys were won by Clayton Mather and Lee Ellifson. Archie Ferguson donated two sheep which were sold to Albert Brown for $30.

The goal for the uniform fund is $1200, of which the organization has collected about $300.

The annual Thanksgiving program at Days Creek school was put on by the third and seventh-grade grades under the direction of teachers Mary Poulter and Alice Lerwill.

The third-grade part of the program included songs, two playlets; a quartet by Dennis Thrall, Sammy Falley, Terry Richardson, and Harry Davidson, and an Indian war dance by the entire class.

The seventh-grade grades depicted a panorama of Thanksgiving, with the lead played by Lee Rogers and Linda Gale.
