Church Activities

Potluck Dinner Held After Church Service

A potluck dinner was held at the parish hall Sunday, following services at the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Richardson, Portland architect, was present to explain the plans for the new church building.

It was voted to accept the plans, which call for a chapel, choir room and Sunday school class rooms on the main floor, which is on the ground level on the south. The basement which is on the ground level on the north, will have a recreation and dining room, kitchen, rest rooms, nursery and heating plant.

Lighting in the chapel will be from windows in the roof, in colored glass or plastic. There will be a parking space on the north and south of the building.

It is hoped to start the building soon and let the cement settle before building the chapel, reports Edith Dunn, Oakland correspondent.

Ladies Bible Class Meets At Home Of Edith Dunn

The Ladies Bible Class of the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church met recently at the home of Mrs. Edith Dunn.

Dr. Homer M. Noble gave a resume of the Book of Hebrews.

Mrs. Esther Decker led devotions. Starting in January, the Book of Ephesians will be studied.

Christmas gifts were exchanged. Refreshments were served to 11 members by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Cordelia Slane. Decorations were in the Christmas motif.

Mrs. Neil Burpee will be hostess at the next meeting.

Episcopal Church To Present Cantata

A musical program of unusual interest will be presented Sunday evening by the choir of St. George's Episcopal Church, Roseburg, under the direction of Robert E. Robins.

"This Is Noel," by Katherine Davis, is a cantata of Christmas music in the old English carol style, performed for the first time in Roseburg.

William Jelski, oboe soloist, will play an oboe part specially written for this cantata, and Virginia Young will accompany the choir on the organ.

A short service of choral evening song will precede the cantata. The service will be conducted by the rector of the parish, the Rev. Alfred S. Tyson, at 7:30 p.m.

The public is welcome to attend.

Revivals To Start Tonight In Roseburg

The Rev. James H. Jonas, Madras, Calif., will open a series of revivals tonight at Faith Tabernacle, 227 Sweetbriar Ave., Roseburg.

The Rev. D. D. Mitchell, pastor of the church, has invited the public to the sessions starting at 7:30 p.m. nightly until further notice.

Glide Schools Concert Scheduled For Tonight

The Glide High School and Junior High School will present their annual Christmas concert tonight at 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

On the program will be selections by two bands, three choruses and several small ensembles. A total of 200 musicians are scheduled to participate.

Traditional carols will be sung and played along with the presentation of the Christmas story.

There is no admission charge for the concert to which the public is invited.

Former Days Creek Resident Succumbs

Word has been received here of the death of Frank J. Dietsch, 67, a former Days Creek man. He died at Los Angeles Dec. 4 after a short illness.

Dietsch was born in Stewart, Neb., and came to Oregon with his parents when he was a small boy. He spent his boyhood in Days Creek.

He was graduated from Oregon State College in 1915, was later a World War I veteran. Still later, he received his master's degree and taught school in Los Angeles for 28 years. The past two years, he taught at Los Angeles Pacific College.

He was active in church and public affairs.

He was the son of the late Carl Dietsch and Mary Dietsch, who reside in Roseburg. He also has a sister, Anna Floyd of Portland. Other survivors are his wife, Ruth, of Los Angeles; two daughters, Marietta Johanna of Portland and Annette Parker of Watsonville, Calif.; a son, Burnell of Los Angeles; and five grandchildren.

NEW DIRECTOR NAMED
