Three In Fight Game Due To Receive Main Awards

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio, rookie welterweight Bob Murphy and publicist man Harry Mendel today were named to receive the Boxing Writers Assn's three main awards.

Basilio, 28-year-old ex-Marine from Chittenango, N.Y., was voted the Edward J. Neil Memorial Plaque as Fighter of the Year.

Murphy, undefeated, 22-year-old 147-pound prospect, was chosen Rookie of the Year.

Mendel, 62-year-old former promoter, matchmaker and newspaperman, was singled out for the James J. Walker Memorial Plaque "for long and meritorious service to boxing over a period of years."

The award-winning trio will be honored at the BWA's annual dinner Jan. 19.

Basilio, a pro eight years, won the 147-pound crown from Tony DeMarco by stopping the hard-hitting Bostonian in the 12th round of a thrilling fight in Syracuse June 10. He is unbeaten in his last 15 fights.

Final Olympic Trials Slated For June 29-30

Herb Score Picked American Loop Rookie Of Year By Large Margin

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) — Herb Score of the Cleveland Indians, who fanned 245 batters to set a record for most strikeouts by a pitcher in his first major league season, was named the American League's 1955 Rookie of the Year today.

The 22-year-old stylish southpaw received 18 votes in the balloting of the 24 committeemen of the Baseball Writers Assn. Three writers from each of the eight American League cities made up the committee.

Only two other players received votes. Infielder Billy Klaus of the Boston Red Sox was picked got five and first baseman Norm Zachin, also of the Red Sox, one.

Score's strikeout mark eclipsed the previous record of 227, established by Grover Cleveland Alexander in his rookie season with the Philadelphia Phils in 1911. Score, a 6-2, 185-pound fast-baller won 16 games and lost 10. He ranked fourth in earned run listings with a 2.85 average.

He was signed to a bonus contract by the Indians for an estimated $60,000 in June 1952. He posted a 22-5 won-lost record for Indians during the 1954 season, striking out 230 batters for an American Assn. record.

Klaus, a peppery shortstop who failed to make the grade in the National League after trials with the Braves and the New York Giants, was instrumental in Boston's successful season.

Murphy, Army veteran of Korea, turned pro this year. The onetime star high school infielder and half-back won his first 14 fights, 10 by knockouts, and showed he was ready to step up in class by holding experience Chico Velaz to a draw in Boston last Saturday night.

Mendel, popular with sports writers, has been connected with boxing for over 45 years. He is publicity man for the International Boxing Club.

Pro Grid Fans Up Attendance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Professional football played to the biggest crowds in its history this fall, an Associated Press survey of the 12 National Football League cities showed Wednesday.

Attendance was up approximately 12.7 per cent over 1954, also a record.

The clubs reported 1955 attendance hit 2,722,685 compared with 2,415,918 in 1954. Average crowd for 72 league games in 1955 was a record of 37,815.

This is the fifth straight year that attendance has shown a gain, which began when the National League merged in 1949 with the now defunct All-America Conference.

Only three teams, the New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit Lions reported declines at the gate.

The Los Angeles Rams reported the largest attendance, 397,997 for six home games.
