Glide Area Telephones Silenced As Tree Falls

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY
Telephones of many Glide residents were silenced for three days before service was restored. A tree fell on the lines in the Lone Rock area, damaging the cable, which resulted in fusing the wires. Two telephone crews worked from Monday morning until late Wednesday afternoon repairing the damage.

Family Goes South
Mr. and Mrs. Larry Holm and Lee and Pamela left Saturday morning to spend two weeks in Southern California visiting relatives. They will celebrate Christmas at Ventura, Calif.

David White, instructor at Glide Junior High, was confined to his home for three days the fore part of the week. Wayne Schermerhorn, grade school principal, and Mrs. Hugh Clark substituted for White.

Frank Kucera, owner of the Red Barn, left Dec. 5 for Portland on a week's business trip. Word has been received that he suffered a heart attack and is confined in a Portland hospital. Kucera will not be released until after Christmas.

School Program Told

Carroll Graber, vocal music director of Glide schools, has announced the program for the annual Christmas party of the Glide Elementary School. The first and second grade students will present a Christmas fantasy, followed by a pageant of Christmas in other lands, given by the students of the first through sixth grades. Each group presents a different musical and pantomime representing the countries. The beginners band and grade school band will furnish the background music. The program closes with Santa Claus presenting the treats from gaily decorated Christmas tree. Glide Parent Teachers Assn. provided the treats.

Mrs. Arnold Dupont and daughter Lyn left Friday morning for Las Vegas, Nev., to spend Christmas at the home of Mrs. Dupont's sister, Mrs. Dan Sherritt.

'Prettiest Girl' Jugged By Judge

DENVER — "The prettiest girl I ever judged," was the way investigator Ray Humphreys described Maude Margaret Dobbins, 29.

Humphreys, with the district attorney's office, returned the girl here with Lee R. Thompson, 29, on charges of confidence game and conspiracy.

They are accused of giving a University of Denver student a forged check for $225 in exchange for two diamond rings. They were arrested at Oklahoma City.

Maude told Humphreys Friday she won second place in a 4-H foods competition in Arizona seven years ago. She was married at 17, she said, but was separated from her husband last May and moved from Ontario, Ore., to Boise, where she worked as a waitress. She said she got to know "all the cops in Boise."

The short-haired brunette said she and Thompson were heading for Chicago when they were arrested.

THOMAS IN OKINAWA
ATSUGI, Japan — U.S. Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas arrived here from Okinawa Saturday on his tour of American bases. Thomas will fly to Korea Saturday. He is scheduled to leave Christmas day for Hong Kong.
