Pennsylvania Boy Invited To Visit With President

READING, Pa., (AP) — Thomas Abraham Lincoln, 7, has an invitation to stop in for a visit with the Eisenhowers of Gettysburg, which was instruction in copper tooling. Grace Crouch and Mildred Burpee, who had taken previous training in the work, gave the instructions.

The boy's mother told excitedly Monday night of a telephone call from the President thanking young Lincoln and his parents for a gingerbread house which Tommy left with a secret service agent Sunday when the Lincolns tried to visit the President's farm.

Monday they received a call from the President himself, said Mrs. Lincoln. He talked to Tommy first, thanking him for his gift and then invited Mrs. Lincoln to bring her family for a visit, she said.
