Church Activities

Martha, Mary Circles Have Christmas Party

The combined Martha and Mary Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Dillard Methodist Church held a Christmas party recently.

Mrs. Stanford Buell was chairman of the program which included readings: "The Bible Story," Mrs. Willard Laurance; "Toss of the Wise Men," Mrs. Pearl Day; "The Three Wise Men," Mrs. Lulu Post, and "Let's Keep Christmas," Mrs. Allan McClellan of the Mary Circle reported on the recent bazaar and cooked food sale sponsored for the benefit of the new church in the Dillard community.

Following the interesting program the annual gift exchange was made with Mrs. Stanford Buell playing the musical march of gifts.

The refreshment hour was held in the decorated social rooms of the church. Mrs. Laurance and Mrs. Buell decorated the serving tables. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Eva Nichols, president of the Martha Circle; Mrs. Susie Bromley and Mrs. Tillie Goodwin.

Pine Grove Sunday School Has Christmas Program

A capacity crowd attended the Christmas program at the Pine Grove Sunday school Sunday evening.

The "Welcome" was given by the Cradle Roll. The Sunday school choir sang "The Beulah Star" and "When The Bells Ring Out."

A recitation was given by Laurie Morgan and a duet by Janna Kruger and Anitra Kauanau. Albert Radcliffe played "Silent Night" on the trombone and Grace Carol Smith played a solo, "Abide With Me."

The Christmas story from St. Luke was given by all the children, both music and tableau. Christmas carols were sung by everyone.

Treats were presented to all, at the close of the program.

Foursquare Church Will Have Program Thursday

Children of the Foursquare Church Sunday school, Winston, will be featured in the Christmas program to be given Thursday at 7:45 p.m.

The recitations, songs and music will be concluded with the presentation of the Nativity story by the Young People's Class, in costume, under the direction of Neil McClain.

Treats will be given at the conclusion of the program.

The Sunday school hour and morning worship will be combined Sunday, from 9:45 to 11 a.m., states the pastor.

Candlelight Tableau Held In Canyonville

An impressive candlelight tableau depicting the nativity, followed by the jollity of Santa Claus and treats, brought the essence of Canyonville Methodist Church and their parents Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

Mrs. George Brinkworth was narrator, setting the scene for the tableau, in which Gloria Johnson was an angel, Claudia Shinn, Mary; Bill Gilbert, Joseph; Diana Wells, star; George Allen, John McDaniel and Bobby Proctor, shepherds; Tommy Long, Mike Ford and Rammy Glenn, wise men.

Music was furnished by the nursery, kindergarten and primary departments, as well as the junior choir, accompanied by Carol Brinkworth and Mrs. Tom Mason.

HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Community Sunday School, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Coon in Upper Camas Valley, had their Christmas party Sunday with a program consisting of recitations; trio's and a play "Worshipping of the Shepherds."

Carols were enjoyed by the attendance of 43 present.

Santa had been there earlier and left a gift of goodies for each one present.

HAS CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

The Methodist Church of Camas Valley held their children's program Sunday morning, with an attendance of 125. The choir of 25 members sang a cantata, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Crouch, with Mrs. Lucille Grimm as pianist. A duet by Mrs. Ted Heilman and the Rev. Mr. Grimm was given.

Budget Bureau Approves Columbia River Dredging

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Budget Bureau Tuesday approved spending of $750,000 to start dredging a 48-foot channel at the mouth of the Columbia River.

The appropriation, made by Congress earlier this year, was one of a number President Eisenhower held up pending clearance by the Bureau of Project plans.

Brothers Finally Get Together In Portland

PORTLAND (AP) — Arthur Kito, 72, of Portland went to the Union Station Tuesday morning to greet George Kito, 74, of Chicago, the brother he had not seen for 47 years. He almost missed him.

George arrived on an earlier train than expected. Reporters and cameramen saw him. Arthur, observing the questioning and flash-bulb popping to realize it was his brother in the center of it.

A reporter saw Arthur seated nearby and took him over to his brother.

"Why the long separation?" "We just never corresponded, that's all," said George.

BOATS FEARED LOST

TOKYO (AP) — Three Japanese tuna boats with 62 men aboard are feared lost in the Pacific Ocean, 800 miles south of the central Japanese island of Honshu, Kyodo news service reported Tuesday. The boats are believed to have been hit by a typhoon which swept the area Dec. 16, the last time they were heard from by radio.
