Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kelley entertained members of the Mariners Club Saturday evening at a Christmas buffet honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilden and Mr. and Mrs. David Englebart. The Gildens are leaving Roseburg Jan. 1 for Berkeley, Calif., where Mr. Gilden has accepted a job as state extension forester with the University of California. The Englebarts are moving to Portland Feb. 1 as

Mr. Englebart, an adjuster for Ohio Casualty Insurance Co., moves to the main office.

Miss Linda Baker, organist, played softly on the organ as the guests assembled. She played the traditional wedding march and accompanied Miss Janet Harris who sang "Dearest Beloved."

The Kelley home was beautifully decorated with a large Christmas tree, colorful candles and greens. The group enjoyed singing Christmas carols during the evening. Enjoying the evening were the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Englebart and Mr. and Mrs. Gilden and Rev. and Mrs. Harry Hampton, Dr. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hise, Mr. and Mrs. Don O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sanislo, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Frisk, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Nordling, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shoemaker Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Don Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Clune, Mr. and Mrs. Don Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bryden, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Turley, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dondoro, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Naden, Mr. and Mrs. James Loomis and the host and hostess.

One of the most charming weddings of the year took place Thursday evening, Dec. 15, at the Glide Christian Church when Miss Betty Marie Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lewis of Glide, became the bride of Robert G. Griffiths of Glide, son of Mrs. Edna Griffiths of St. George, Utah. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Duane G. Obenchain, minister of the church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Two floor baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums flanked the candelabra on the platform. The candles were lighted by Arlene Lewis, sister of the bride, and Brenda Nichols.

Miss Linda Baker, organist, played softly on the organ as the guests assembled. She played the traditional wedding march and accompanied Miss Janet Harris who sang "Dearest Beloved."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white lace gown over satin, ballerina length, and a fingertip veil trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with orchid corsage.

Mrs. Billie Rue Tinker of Canyonville, was matron of honor. She wore a pink lace gown over satin, ballerina length, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Carol Lippy and Sharon Cox were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pastel blue over satin and carried sprays of pink carnations.

Rick Standley was best man and Bill Jones and Raymond Helms were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors, given by Mrs. Carl Helms and Mrs. Tim O'Connell. Centered in the lace covered serving table was the beautiful three tiered wedding cake decorated with candied yellow roses with miniature bride and bridegroom on top. Mrs. Tim O'Connell cut and served the cake.

Mrs. Ernest Bates of Cresswell, aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Mrs. Bill Jones served the punch.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths left during the reception for their honeymoon trip to St. George, Utah to visit the bridegroom's mother. On their return, Mrs. Griffiths will live with her parents until she graduates this year from Glide High School. Sp3 Griffiths, who has served one and one-half years in the U.S. Army, will return to duty at Ford Ord, Calif. The Lewis family has resided at Glide the last 11 years.
