Dillard District To Organize Scouts

An effort is being made to organize Cub Scouts in Dillard School District 116. Anyone interested in helping is urged to attend a meeting to be held at Dillard School Thursday, Jan. 5 at 8 p.m.

Paul Dodd has expressed a hope that parents will turn out for the meeting as there is a definite need for their leadership if the program is to succeed, according to Mrs. Glenn Ryder, Winston correspondent.

A Christmas program followed the recent meeting of the Dillard PTA. Sixth grade band students, under the direction of Instructor Paul Dodd, opened the program by playing three numbers, including a Christmas melody.

A dramatic play, "Choirs of God," was presented by the Young Peoples Choir of the Winston Christian Church. Mrs. Betty Gubser assisted as reader. The two tiny angels were Evelyn Wagner and Alice Jean Ryder, first grade students.

"Jingle Bells," a baton twirling number, was presented by a group of fifth and sixth grade girls who had tiny bells attached to their batons. Katherine Cory directed the group.

In closing, the fifth and sixth grade choral groups sang several Christmas carols, with the audience joining in the last few numbers. Mrs. Ellen Pennie accompanied the group.

As a token of appreciation, the Dillard PTA presented a Christmas gift in the form of a check to Wade Gentry, school custodian.

Fourth grade mothers served refreshments.

Christmas Party Held By Sutherlin Club

The Associated Business Women's Club of Sutherlin met for its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Dolores Jackson, on East Fourth Avenue, with Mrs. Mabel McCord and Mrs. Doris Steinbach, co-hostesses. Eighteen members were present.

New members to be initiated at the next meeting will be Mrs. Kay Robison, Mrs. Gladys Wothagen, Mrs. Petrona Wilcox, Mrs. Erma Smith, Mrs. Grace Tucker, Mrs. Ruth Greer, Mrs. Georgia Clark, Mrs. Ella Gray and Mrs. Aline Hammerchmidt.

It was reported that over a thousand bags of candy were given to children by Santa Claus Saturday. A discussion was held on needy families, and it was voted to use what money was left, that the mills donated, to help make up baskets for the needy, as there were 20 families reported.

It was voted that each member donate what they care to in the line of food, and the club will make up the Christmas baskets.

Books are to be audited before the next regular meeting and the installation of officers will be held Monday night, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Laura Metcalf, Mrs. Ora Irwin and Mrs. Freda Paynter, hostesses. Place of meeting will be announced later.

The exchange of gifts and the singing of carols was enjoyed after which refreshments were served.
