

McCarthy Advises Ike To Get Rid Of His Advisers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said this week the Eisenhower administration record "would be much better" with out some of its advisers, including the President's brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower.

McCarthy, who has been at odds with the White House, told news- men he plans to do some cam- paigning for Republicans in the 1956 election campaign. But he said he can't go along entirely with the view expressed by some strat- egists that the GOP should bid for votes mainly on the adminis- tration's record.

"If they would get rid of the Paul Hoffmans, the Harold Stas- sens and the Milton Eisenhowers, the record would be much better," McCarthy said.

All three have declined comment on previous similar criticism by McCarthy. Of the trio, only Stassen holds a government position. He is President Eisenhower's special assistant on disarmament.

Hoffman is board chairman of the Studebaker-Packard Corp. Mil- ton Eisenhower, president of Penn- sylvania State University, once un- dertook a special American mis- sion for his brother.

McCarthy said Eisenhower should announce "at the very lat- est by Feb. 1" whether he will seek a second White House term.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The Jordan Supreme Court ruled this week the dissolving of Parliament last month was unconstitutional. The court's decision was unani- mous and binding, meaning the life of the old Parliament is extended.

SETTLING DOWN TO EAT—This is the nation's first "fly-in" restaurant, located on the edge of a small airport in Augusta, Ga. It is a conventional drive-in on one side and a "fly-in" on the other. "Sky-hop" is shown serving her first customer.
