LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 7, 1956

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

ONE OF THE OUTSTANDING affairs of the season was the bon voyage dinner party given to honor Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, who left yesterday on the M. S. Oslofjord out of New York bound on the Caribbean grand cruise of 1956, and to honor Mrs. Harry Hildeburn and Mrs. Edgar Lewis, who sailed today from New York aboard the Swedish American Line luxury liner, M. S. Kungsholm, on a four-month trip around the world. The trips were arranged by William Jelski of the Lewis Travel Service.

THE NO-HOST DINNER was held Thursday evening at the beautiful new Harlequin Club. Covers were placed for 45 friends. Pink and white carnations centered the dinner tables. Beautiful corsages were presented to Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Hildeburn by Mr. and Mrs. Jelski, who entertained the four guests of honor as their guests for the evening.

PORTS OF CALL for Mrs. Hildeburn and Mrs. Lewis include Funchal, Gibraltar, Villefranche, Naples, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Colombo, Bangkok, Singapore, Bali, Manila, Hong Kong, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, Los Angeles, Acapulco, Cristobal and New York.

THE HARDINGS are making their second Caribbean cruise. Ports of call for them include Port-au-Prince, Ciudad Trujillo, San Juan, St. Thomas, Fort-de-France, Bridgetown, St. George's, Port-of-Spain, Willemstad, La Guaira, Cartagena, Cristobal, Montego Bay, Havana, Nassau and New York.
