MRS. HUBERT COLLIER IS INSPIRATION FOR PARTY

Mrs. Hubert Collier was the inspiration of a charming pink and blue shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Don Martin on Carey street, Brockway. Assisting Mrs. Martin as hostesses were Mrs. Edith Bratsch and Mrs. Goldie Willis. Games were played and prizes awarded. Mrs. Warren Lengele won the door prize.

The honoree was assisted in opening her many lovely gifts by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Myrtle Swanson. The lace-covered serving table was centered with a large sheet cake decorated with pink and blue booties. Individual "diaper" favors were given each guest by the hostesses.

Those attending and sending gifts were the Mesdames: Myrtle Swanson, Eleanor Parr, Ella Wade, Joe Coulson, Florence Stack, Loyde Ferguson, Doris Metcalf, Earl Jones, Aileen Otto, Melba Maddan of St. Helena, Bertha Swanson, Goldie Willis, Doreen Bratsch, Pauline Withers, Robbie Lee Cooper, Pearl Day, Warren Lengele, Marie Counts, Hazel Coffman, Wanda Finnell and the hostesses, Mrs. Bratsch, Willis and Doris Martin.

Thoreen Dahl became the bride of Philip McKinney. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Zigel at a 9:30 p.m. service.

The bride was beautiful in a lace over white satin, floor-length gown with a train. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip length and she wore white gloves and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson of Eugene, sister of the bride, wore a street-length gown of turquoise blue satin and carried pink and white carnations. Richard McKinney, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Pernula, of West Port, Wash., and Ingvald Dahl of Cordova, Alaska. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKinney of Umpqua.

The mother of the bride wore blue satin with white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore gray silk with dark blue accessories. A reception followed in the church annex with 35 relatives and friends present. For traveling the bride chose a black and white suit. After a short honeymoon in Oregon the couple will go to Yuba City, Calif., where he is attending college. The bride comes from Cordova, Alaska. The bridegroom attended Roseburg High School and was in the Air Force for some time.

Double Silver Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

The Pargeter home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in the holiday motif with silver and white predominating in the table decorations. The wedding cakes were decorated in pink, white and silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Bathrick assisted Mr. and Mrs. Pargeter with the affair. Lovely gifts were presented to both couples from Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reece, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reece, Dalene Busenbark, Dick Withycombe, Mr. and Mrs. David Sams and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wheeler of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Busenbark of Prassier, Wash.; Miss Helen Busenbark, Newport, Wash.; F. T. Reece, Mrs. L. E. Goodbourn, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Bathrick and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pargeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Reece were married Christmas Day, 1931, at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark. They have two sons, Ted and Roger Reece, and four grandchildren, Terry, Judith Lynn, David and Sheryl Reece.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollister were married Christmas Eve, 1931, at the home of the late John Busenbark, grandfather of Mrs. Hollister. They have four children, Mrs. David Sams, Carol, Diane and Donald Hollister, all of Eugene.
