Roseburg Council Church Women Lay Plans For World Prayer Day

The executive board of the Roseburg Council of Church Women held its first meeting for the year this week in the Presbyterian Church library room.

Thirty members were present. The meeting was called to order by President Mrs. Arthur Lamka. Represented in the group were: the Salvation Army, WCTU, Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, Free Methodist Church, Presbyterian Church, First Methodist Church, North Roseburg EUB Church, St. George's Episcopal Church, Riverside Union Sunday School, Faith Lutheran Church, First Christian Church, Westside Christian Church, First Baptist Church and the Church of the Nazarene.

The Roseburg Council of Church Women is a united group of Protestant women from churches which share the basic faith in Jesus Christ as Divine Lord and Saviour. Any Protestant church which shares in this faith is eligible to be affiliated in this council and to have representation in the executive board meetings of the council.

The executive board of the council is composed of officers elected in November by church women of the community, chairmen of standing committees, elected representatives from the women's societies of each local affiliated church and the minister's wife from that church and state officers residing in the community. The board advances the work of the organization between the regular council meeting days which are World Day of Prayer on the first Friday of Lent, May Fellowship Day on the first Friday in May and World Community Day on the first Friday in November. To these special day meetings every woman of every church in the community is invited.

The purpose of the organization is to unite church women in their allegiance to their Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, through a program of integration in the total life and work of the church and to the building of a Christian community. This provides a means for Christian worship, activity and fellowship across denominational lines.

The council is affiliated with the Oregon Council of Church Women and the United Church Women. The local council is self governed, however, by local church women through their representatives and its democratic process of action.

New officers for 1956 were introduced by Mrs. Lamka and a dedication service followed in which each accepted her office.

Approval was voiced to send a letter to the Roseburg Ministerial Assn. commending it for sponsoring "Keep Christ in Christmas" window displays in the downtown area during the Christmas season.

Three delegates were elected to attend the convention for Oregon Council of Church Women to be held in Portland on Jan. 30 to Feb. 2.

Mrs. Dan Olin, chairman for World Community Day of Nov. 4, 1955, reported over 200 pounds of usable clothing collected and sent to needy people in foreign lands.

Plans were formulated for observance of World Day of Prayer on Feb. 17. Each year this day is observed in more than 150 countries of the United States and 150 countries around the world. Its purpose is to unite people of the world in a bond of prayer and Christian fellowship. Mrs. Dean Butler is general chairman for this year's observance of World Day of Prayer. Because of its central location, the St. George's Episcopal Church will again be the host church for the occasion.

Members met a permanent meeting time for executive board of the Roseburg Council as the fourth Tuesday of each month to be held at 9:30 a.m. in the Presbyterian Church library room located in the new annex building on Lane Street.

The next meeting of the executive committee is scheduled for Jan. 24. Invitation is extended to Protestant churches in the community not now represented in the Roseburg Council of Church Women to send elected representatives to this meeting if they wish to be affiliated with the group.

Mary Elise Unrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Unrath, has been chosen as the sweetheart candidate for the Continuing Steadfast Club of the First Christian Church Bible School.

Miss Unrath has received recognition for eight years of perfect attendance. She also is active in the Trinity-Y at Roseburg Senior High School.
