

Glendale Man Loses Finger In Accident

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX
Glen Kafer, planer set-up man at the Robert Dollar planing mill in Glendale, lost a finger in an accident last week. Kafer, reportedly, was removing a splinter which had lodged in the machine, when his hand slipped into the whirling knives. He was taken to Josephine Hospital in Grants Pass for treatment.

Stitches Required
Duane Curry, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Newt Curry of Glendale, cut the index finger of his right hand and required three stitches last week.
D. R. Densley of Glendale, fell and bruised his shin while working on resaw equipment at the Robert Dollar mill last week.
Coy Sivall of Glendale required three stitches on his right eyebrow last week when a board broke and struck him.

The next meeting will be a social evening at the home of Mrs. Bill Matthews on Leland Avenue, Jan. 28. Mrs. Ulmer is in charge of arrangements for the party for members and husbands.

Garden Valley Residents Use Candles For Light

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER
Garden Valley residents were inconvenienced by the recent heavy snowfall. Most homes were lighted by candles or grandma's Aladdin lamp until electric power was restored. Some phones are still out of order.
Many trees in the Denton orchard broke with the snow weight. At the Charles Higbee orchard, three large walnut trees were uprooted. Some homes report choice shrubs broken.
At the Cliff Hess home 500 two-day-old baby chicks became overnight house guests.
Pfc. Calvin Arola, who has been stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Mass., is on a two-week furlough. He is home to attend the wedding of his sister, Anita Arola, to Don Hotman.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hannaman and two children of Billings, Mont. came to visit with the former's brother, Darrel Hannaman and family. They also visited with another brother, Duane Hannaman and family, of Elgarose.
Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Hannaman, fell as she was getting on the school bus recently and cut a large gash in her knee on glass. She was brought home by the bus and her parents took her to a doctor. It took several stitches to close the wound.
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pruitt and children, Davis and Shirley of Tulalake, returned home recently after a visit with Mrs. Pruitt's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Potvin.
