

MR. AND MRS. PERCY MYERS, above, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Dec. 18 at the home of their daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Arthur, at Winston. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were married Dec. 19, 1930, and have lived in Roseburg their entire life.

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Myers of Green was celebrated Dec. 18 at an open-house affair given by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Arthur, at the Arthur home in Winston. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were married 25 years ago, Dec. 19, in Roseburg. Both are long-time Roseburg residents. For the occasion, Mrs. Charles were a becoming dress of aqua blue crepe with jeweled buttons and a corsage of bells and silver ribbon, made by Mrs. James Daugherty. The serving table, covered with an Irish linen cloth, was the attractive setting for a large tiered wedding cake, decorated with bells and lilies of the valley. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Arthur. Mrs. H. A. Doyle cut and served the cake. Mrs. Willis Myers poured the coffee and Mrs. Jack Darling served the punch. Miss Marilyn Myers had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Glen Turner assisted about the room. Those who called during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Darling, Mrs. Tressie Claypool, Clarence Myers, Glen Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bean, Mr. and Mrs. John Cornilisen, Mrs. Lester Miller, Mrs. George Holm, Mrs. H. A. Doyle, Richard Stack, Dale Myers, Morie Lander, Sonia Lander, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Daugherty, Mrs. Norma White and son and Mrs. Charles Slabaugh, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Insley and sons; Andrew Telford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Larson and Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst.

WELCOME HOME PARTY GIVEN AT FRIDAY HOME

A welcome home party was given recently at the C. H. Friday home in honor of Hal Fretwell and Harlow Friday, home on leave from Fort Knox, Ky.

A novel feature of the evening was the presentation of an especially constructed army tank to the boys by Jim Friday, Gaye Warren did a tap routine to "Dog-face Soldier" on top of the tank. Other entertainment consisted of musical numbers on the violin and accordion by June and Bob Boddenner.

The rest of the evening was devoted to stunts and dancing with refreshments served throughout on tables decorated with black and white check cloths, candle-dripped bottles serving as candle holders and miniature tanks flying in a 11 flags.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Friday, those attending were Gaye Warren, John Carson, Nancy Cate, Roy Cotton, Mike Stryker, Janet Mulkey, Jackie Warren, Vickie Lehman, Don Ware, Bob Geddes, Judy Wood, Jim Parker, Don Thronburg, Ginger Kestelman, Jennie Murphy, Frank Purdy, Caroline Jackson, Jodi Corkrum, Debbie Corkrum, Dave Lyons, Carlene Felker, Cathy Fretwell, Sylvia Edie, Gary Crenshaw, Bob and June Boddenner, Bill Friday, Jim Friday and the two honored guests, Harlow Friday and Hal Fretwell.

NINTH BIRTHDAY IS OCCASION FOR PARTY

Sharon Sue Rapp was honored on her ninth birthday Monday afternoon at her home on East First Avenue.

The group played games and Karen Harris won the prize after which Sharon Sue opened her many lovey gifts.

After the play hour Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rapp took the group to the Del Rey Cafe at Winchester for dinner. Preceding dinner the girls played a game with Janice Johnson winning the prize.

A beautiful decorated birthday cake was baked by Pop and Mom Wulf and was served with dinner. Those enjoying the occasion with Sharon Sue were Karen Harris, Barbara and Beverly Curry, Teresa Rapp, Janice Johnson, Becky McGill, Martha Rapp and Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rapp.

ROSETTA LAYCOCK BECOMES BRIDE OF GARY GENE BAULT

Miss Rosetta Mae Laycock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Laycock of Roseburg, and Gary Gene Bault, son of Mrs. Adalade Bault of Dillard, were quietly married Friday, Jan. 13, in the evening at the Presbyterian Church parsonage at Oakland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Homer M. Noble of Oakland. The bride wore a lovely, light-colored gown and pink suit, small black hat wreathed in flowers and black accessories. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of Dillard. They are making their home in Roseburg where Mr. Bault is employed at the Premix Cement Co.

MRS. NICHOLS HOSTESS TO INTER-SE CLUB

A 1:15 luncheon for members of the Inter-Se Study Club and their guests was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. Harold Nichols. Mrs. W. M. Campbell gave the program on the life of Ethel Barrymore. Attending were Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. E. E. Lindell, Mrs. Charles Stark, Mrs. Jack Ulrich and Mrs. Edna Beauchamp. The club will meet next Jan. 24 at the home of Mrs. E. E. Lindell. Mrs. Charles Stark will have charge of the program.

Local News

Here From Portland — Senator Al Corbett of Portland was a visitor here Thursday.

Back From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers have returned to their home here, following a business trip to Portland.

Here on Business — H. E. Butler, assistant trust officer of the U.S. National Bank, Portland, was a business visitor in Roseburg yesterday.

Visiting in Portland — Mrs. Halie Guerin of Roseburg is spending the week in Portland visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl Crowder, and attending to business.

Visiting Here — Mrs. George Mangas expects to return Sunday to her home in Portland after a visit here with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mangas.

Convalescing — Mrs. Ricky Powell of Kildie was transferred today to the home of her parents at 3518 N. 10 Highway, Medford, after undergoing recent surgery at the Medford Community Hospital.

In Hospital — Mrs. Washington Hughes of Roseburg has been admitted to St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland for surgery. The Hughes' daughter, Miss Daphne Hughes, executive youth consultant for the Episcopal Diocese, Newark, N.J., has arrived in Portland to be with her mother.

In Hospital At Home — The Rev. Lowell McAfee Campbell, Presbyterian minister on St. Lawrence Street, has been taken to the hospital in Nome to receive treatment and possible surgery for a frozen foot. He suffered the injury while on a regular 7-hour mission tour, which on account of weather conditions lengthened to 17 hours. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell of this city. He and his wife and their two sons, Michael and Gary, were visitors here on their furlough during the summer and fall.

MRS. STEWART HOSTESS TO LEND-A-HAND CLUB

At one o'clock Wednesday the Lend-A-Hand club gathered at the home of Mrs. Glenda Stewart east of Sutherland for an afternoon of sewing.

After the sewing hour Mrs. Stewart served refreshments to Mrs. Kay Moore, Miss Frances Larson, Mrs. Dorothy Longbrake and Mrs. Glen Webber.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Adams at Fair Oaks Wednesday Jan. 25.

ESTHER'S BEAUTY SALON Second Street, Myrtle Creek PHONE 185 Evenings by Appointment

OFFICERS OF Mountaineer Rebekah Lodge, Glendale, are pictured above. Left to right, back row: Grace Powelson, inside guardian; Angie Nensiel, financial secretary; Ella Blaser, left supporter of the noble grand; Leona McAllister, outside guardian; second row: Jennene Johns, left supporter of vice grand; Polly Wright, chaplain; Myrn Opperman, conductress; Mary Wright, warden; Mildred Daniels, color bearer; LaVerne Coates, treasurer. Front row: Hazel Whaley, right supporter to vice grand; Mabel Winkelman, recording secretary; Zorada Ford, musician; Nadine Reynolds, vice grand; Myrtle Young, noble grand; Joyce Mill, right supporter to the noble grand. (Fox Photo).

The Glendale IOOF Lodge 172 and the Mountaineer Rebekah Lodge, 149, Glendale, held a joint installation at the IOOF Hall Saturday evening.

Janita Buenger had charge of the guest book and Virginia Perry and Georgia Mill lighted the candles before the beginning of the ceremony. The pledge to the American flag was led by retiring Noble Grand Jean Gaedecke.

The regular officers surrendered their chairs to the installing officers, District Deputy Grand President, Leona McAllister, grand warden, Viola Caraway; grand marshal, Velma Edson; grand secretary, Bess Bates; grand treasurer, Mattie Heller; grand chaplain, Mae Basye; musician, Guya Vaughn, for the Rebekah Lodge; and deputy grand master, Eugene Clark; grand warden, Walter McAllister; grand marshal, Pirley

Winkelman; grand secretary, Jack Vincent; grand treasurer, C. W. Vincent; grand chaplain, Ed Miller, for the Odd Fellows.

The following were installed: Noble grand, Myrtle Young; vice grand, Nadine Reynolds; recording secretary, Mabel Winkelman; financial secretary, Angie Nensiel; treasurer, LaVerne Coates; right supporter of noble grand, Joyce Mill; left supporter of noble grand, Ella Blaser; right supporter of vice grand, Hazel Whaley; left supporter of vice grand, Jennene Johns; warden, Mary Wright; conductress, Myrn Opperman; inside guardian, Grace Powelson; outside guardian, Leona McAllister; chaplain, Polly Wright; color bearer, Mildred Daniels; and musician, Zorada Ford, as officers in the Rebekah Lodge. IOOF officers are Ben Whaley, noble grand; Monte Bates, vice noble grand; Bill Perry, recording secretary; Side Perry, treasurer; Jack Vincent, right supporter of noble grand; Ted Clark, left supporter of noble grand; Pirley Winkelman, right supporter of vice grand; Al Mohr, left supporter of vice grand; Glen Kafer, warden; Tommy Prestian, conductor; George Mill, inside guardian; Gene Clark, outside guardian and Bill Nensiel, chaplain.

After the installation, Lela Smith sang a solo, "The Lord's Prayer," which honored the retiring noble grand, Jean Gaedecke and George Reynolds, and Esther Kafer sang a solo especially for them. Bess Bates presented Mrs. Gaedecke with her past noble grand pin, and each officer gave her a handkerchief corsage tied with pastel ribbons from which gold keys were hung. Gene Clark presented George Reynolds with a past noble grand collar.

The program consisted of some excellent chorus numbers presented by students under the direction of teacher, Robert Carter. The mixed chorus also sang varied selections.

The program was conducted with a solo, "Forgive," sung by the Rev. Wayne Wattman, accompanied by Mrs. Wattman.

Refreshments were served in the dining room on tables decorated with pink and green candles which represented the Rebekah Lodge and red and white candles, represented the Odd Fellows Lodge. Similar candles and baskets of fern and pink roses were used in decoration in the main meeting room. Delicious refreshments were served. Napkins were printed in gold with the names of the lodges and the organization date, 1905, on one side, and with 1906 on the other.

Oakland Eastern Star Installation Thursday

Eastern Star Chapter No. 91 of Oakland held installation of officers Thursday night. Installing officers were past patron, Loyal Stearns, and past matron, Mary Barker, matron; Juanita Holgate, marshal; Agnes Wilcox, chaplain; Nadine Stearns, conductress; and Ruth Bridges, organist.

New officers are worthy matron, Helen Stuebe; worthy patron, Lyle Stuebe; associate matron, Betty Early; secretary, Harry Smith; treasurer, Naomi Riggs; organist, Ruth Bunch; conductress, Olga Bielman; associate conductress, Gertrude Hebard; chaplain, Lucretia Ross; marshal, Kathryn Roadman; organist, Jean Treman; Adah, Grace Wood; Ruth, Vera Smith; Esther, Alma Jean Boyd; Martha, Doris Steinhilf; Elecia, Dona Bennett; warden, Ivena Halverson and sentinel, C. J. Bielman.

Courtesy girls are: Drill captain, Juanita Holgate, Edna Bidwell; Myrtle Van Meter, Veda Holloper, Ruth Manning, Emma Tillery, Donna Horton, Myrtle Owens, Dorothy Austin and Janice Barker.

Special music committee, Leah Carlisle, Ruth Bridges, Susan Bunch and Juanita Holgate. Standing committees: Finance, Ella Sparks, Mary Barker, Fern Flory, Irene Cornish, Bernice Thiels and Ted Roadman; Instruction, Myrtle Wahl, Loyal Cornish, Ruth Bridges, Agnes Wilcox, Ada McCall, Betty Stearns and Eleanor Dorman. Endowment committee, Genevieve Murphy, Gertrude Hebard, L. F. Stearns; visiting and relief, Nadine Stearns, Edna Campbell and Florence Theiler; publicity, Wanda Hopkins; custodian of lights, Delmar Murphy; custodian of dining hall, Lucretia Ross.

The program consisted of solos by Iva Graham, Sue Bunch and Juanita Holgate; duet, Leonne Riggs and Nancy Foster; and a drill by Job's Daughters. Accompanied was Yvonne Stuebe.

The retiring matron, Lucile Lord's prayer and pledge of allegiance were given and Beth Hopper, grand chaplain of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, was introduced. The meeting was then turned over to the installing past matron, Mrs. Mae Basye, and her assistants, Howard Edson, installing marshal, Thelma Reynolds, installing chaplain, Eunice Payne and Mildred Sether, installing musicians. Those installed were: Velma Edson, worthy matron; Herbert Reed, worthy patron; Jean Gaedecke, associate matron; Bill McGrath, associate treasurer; Matt Heller, secretary; Judy LaPrath, associate conductress; Olive Kuhl, chaplain; Thelma Larson, marshal; Esther Kafer, musician; Dorothy McDonald, Adah; Jackie Smith, Ruth; Verneta Marriott, Martha; Dora Kennedy, warden.

Before the installation ceremony, Kay and Peggy Edson, daughters of the worthy matron, carried a lighted candle and a Bible to the altar.

After the installation of the worthy matron and worthy patron, Mary Wright sang a solo, "Mar of the East," accompanied by Eunice Payne.

PINOCHLE PARTY ENJOYED AT MAMBER HOME

Mrs. Leo Manske was a charming hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertained a group of friends at Winston-Dillard with a pinochle party. Hostess prizes were awarded to Mrs. Rosa Heimbach and Mrs. Decla Taylor. Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Manske were Mrs. Ethel Johnson, who had recently returned from several months in Canada; Mrs. Blanche Tipton, Mrs. Marion Garryman, Mrs. Robbie Lee Cooper, Mrs. Eleanor Shigley, Mrs. Rosa Heimbach and Mrs. Decla Taylor. Delicious dessert refreshments were served at the close of the lovely afternoon by the hostess.

CALVIN AROLA FETED AT RECENT DINNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arola honored their son, Pfc Calvin Arola, who is home on furlough from Ft. Devens, Mass., with dinners on Saturday and Sunday.

Friends coming to enjoy Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Basson, Jim Basson and Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Paulsen.

Guests Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Alva Teeter and Ernest; Mrs. Etta Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas and Jim; The Arolas, other children, Mike, Pete, Helen, Carley and George, were also present for the dinners.

Glendale OES Officers Installed Friday Night

The officers of the OES Lodge, Glendale chapter, 71, were installed Friday evening at the Masonic Temple.

The retiring matron, Lucile Lord's prayer and pledge of allegiance were given and Beth Hopper, grand chaplain of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, was introduced. The meeting was then turned over to the installing past matron, Mrs. Mae Basye, and her assistants, Howard Edson, installing marshal, Thelma Reynolds, installing chaplain, Eunice Payne and Mildred Sether, installing musicians. Those installed were: Velma Edson, worthy matron; Herbert Reed, worthy patron; Jean Gaedecke, associate matron; Bill McGrath, associate treasurer; Matt Heller, secretary; Judy LaPrath, associate conductress; Olive Kuhl, chaplain; Thelma Larson, marshal; Esther Kafer, musician; Dorothy McDonald, Adah; Jackie Smith, Ruth; Verneta Marriott, Martha; Dora Kennedy, warden.

Later, two addenda were given for the outgoing matron, one by the past matron's club and one by her officers. An addendum was given for the incoming matron by several of her officers.

The hall was decorated with silver laurel leaves and berries and refreshments were served to members and guests.

Because of the severity of the snow storm which prevented several officers from being present on installation night, these were installed at the first regular meeting, Jan. 10. They were Sylvia Flory, treasurer; Gene Halstead, conductress; Philtha McGrath, Esther; and William McGrath, sentinel.

DESSERT LUNCHEON HELD AT LAMOREAUX HOME

Sutherland Tillicum club was graciously entertained at a one o'clock dessert luncheon by Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux, at her home northwest of Oakland. Beautiful bouquets of jasmine and pussy willows were used about the rooms and miniature vases of jasmine centered the appointive tables.

Those seated at the tables were Mrs. Wesley Thompson, Mrs. Alva Young, Mrs. Vera Flory, Mrs. Joe Percub, Mrs. Frank McCord, Mrs. Harry Barker, Mrs. John Chase, Mrs. Vern Holgate, Mrs. C. J. Nielman, Mrs. Cal Rowley, Mrs. Vera Leininger and the hostess, Mrs. Lamoreaux.

For the afternoon contract bridge play, Mrs. Barker won high; Mrs. McCord, second high; low, Mrs. Rowley and the traveling goose, Mrs. Holgate.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 31, at the home of Mrs. Frank McCord.

GLEN GODFREY HONORED AT SURPRISE PARTY

Glen Godfrey was honored at a surprise birthday party Sunday evening at the lovely new trailer home of his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines in Dillard. Those helping Godfrey to celebrate his birthday were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Godfrey from Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brown and son, Steve of Upper Rice Creek; Mrs. Glen Godfrey and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines and son Snapper.

MRS. HUFF CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY TUESDAY

Mrs. E. A. Huff was the inspiration for a birthday dinner given at her home Tuesday evening. Included besides Mr. and Mrs. Huff were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lambeth and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ransom and children, who brought the large birthday cake.

The evening was spent in playing cribbage with birthday cake and coffee being served late in the evening.

LEONE RIGGS, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riggs, Sutherland, was installed honored queen of Oakland Bethel No. 42, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the Oakland Masonic Temple. (Picture by Warren Studio).

Other officers installed were: Sharon Roadman, senior princess; Nancy Foster, junior princess; Nancy Dorman, guide; Janice Rippstein, marshal; Janelle Shaw, chaplain; Betty Larson, treasurer; Yvonne Stuebe, recorder; Janice Kewshier, librarian; Barbara Early, musician; Sharon Wood, first messenger; Sandra Flory, second messenger; Peggy Murphy, third messenger; Joyce Rippstein, fourth messenger; Sherri Minor, fifth messenger; senior custodian, Joanne Wilson; Peggy Woolman, junior custodian; Carolene Johnson, inner guard; Norma Peery, outer guard; Peggy Austin, historian; Terri Osterhout, lady of the lights; Alona Bennett, reporter; and Helen Self, Bethel flag bearer.

The installing officers were: Nancy Sparks, retiring honored queen and installing officer; Frances Heaton, guide; Gay Marshall, marshal; Veda Holloper, chaplain; Shirley Gorman, recorder; Ruth Bridges, musician; Mary Ellen Erickson, senior custodian; Carol Burgess, junior custodian, and Laurie Watson, soloist.

Honored Queen Leone was presented a white Bethel Bible by the guardian council and with a myrtlewood gavel by her father.

Following installation the new officers joined in the formation of a beautiful white floral cross and narration by Carol Clarke. A clever addendum preceded the presentation of a past queen's jewel to Nancy Sparks, retiring queen, by Mary Ellen Erickson, junior past queen. The jewel was a gift from the Bethel.

Distinguished guests from out-of-town included: Muriel Ellison, honored queen; Peggy Tison, senior princess and Diane Myers, junior princess, all of Bethel No. 8, Roseburg; Beverly Wegler, senior princess; Myra Kelly, junior princess of Bethel No. 18, Myrtle Creek; Roy Colburn, associate grand guardian, Roseburg; Mamie Wilson, past grand guardian; Millie Doud, grand librarian and guardian of Bethel 18, and Jack Doud, associate guardian of Bethel No. 18, all of Myrtle Creek.

The next regular meeting of Bethel No. 42 will be held Jan. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the Oakland Masonic Temple.

DeMolay Installation Takes Place Saturday

Roseburg Order of DeMolay held its installation ceremonies Saturday night at the Masonic Hall in Roseburg, with the Tadena Chapter of Albany conducting the installation. Walter Stewart, as advisor, and four boys of the Tadena Chapter made up the installing team. John Joelson was installed as master counselor. Don Smith as senior counselor and Ernie Knigge as junior counselor.

A spaghetti dinner, served by the DeMolay mothers, was given preceding the affair for the boys and the visiting installing team.

After the ceremonies, Mrs. Eugene Ridenour, president of the mothers' club, presented the new master counselor with a gavel and a representative from the Eugene chapter presented him with a traveling master counselor's pin. Twelve girls from Job's Daughters of Bethel No. 8 performed a beautiful flower drill, after which the flowers were presented to Mrs. Joelson.

their parents to assembled friends and relatives.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Joelson were hosts to the DeMolay boys and their invited guests at a party given at their home on Pitzer Street.

COFFEE HOUR HONORS MRS. DAVID ENGLEBART

A coffee and handkerchief shower was given recently by Mrs. D. C. Nickens recently in honor of Mrs. David Englebart who, with her family, is moving to Portland.

Invited guests were Mrs. Jim Loomis, Mrs. Asa Irwin, Mrs. Gordon Gorretson and Mrs. John Shirley.

Advertisement for SINGER Sewing Contest. It features a large 'SINGER' logo and '$125,000 SEWING CONTEST' text. Below this, it lists prizes: 2nd Grand Prize ($10,000 in cash), 3rd Grand Prize ($5,000 in cash), 4th Grand Prize ($2,000 in cash), 5th Grand Prize ($1,000 in cash), and 6th through 10th Grand Prizes ($500 in cash). It also mentions 'WIN A TRIP TO EUROPE FOR TWO WITH THE WORDS YOU WRITE (or $2,500 in cash)'. At the bottom, it says 'ENTER NOW! Get Complete Rules and Entry Blank At Your Nearest SINGER SEWING CENTER 558 S. E. Jackson, Roseburg, Oregon OR 3-7348'.

Advertisement for Petite Marie Beauty Salon. It says 'A Licensed Shop the A Licensed Beautician COLD WAVE PERMANENTS All professional formulas used—500 Bona-Duarts, Realistic, etc SHAMPOO and STYLING 1.50 up 2442 N. Stephens St. (Hwy 99) Phone OR 3-3991 Mabel A. Hilde Closed Monday'.