Glendale March On Polio Started

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX

The March of Dimes effort in Glendale this year is a cooperative one with no one acting as official director. Mrs. Mary Wright, 1935 chairman, is helping to coordinate activities but not on an official basis.

Collection jars have been put up in the stores, and the Slim Pickens Cafe is again selling blocks of wall in front of their serving counter at $1 each. Letters have been mailed to mills, business offices and organizations, asking for donations or for their cooperation in conducting money raising projects. Among organizational projects the F. L. Club has put state name donation jars in the postoffice. They are also conducting coffee hours for the March of Dimes. Two were held in December at the homes of Mrs. Melba Days and Mrs. Doris Johns. A third was held last week at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Johns. Another will be held later this month. In addition, the club sponsored a benefit which was held at the IOOF Hall on Jan. 20.

The Friendship Club held a MOD supper at the IOOF Hall last week. Proceeds went to the fund. The Friendship Club will also conduct the annual Mothers March. Details will be announced later.

The Lions Club has scheduled a MOD dance for Jan. 28, at the Masonic Temple. Music will be furnished by the Canyonville Lions' Club band.

The Boy Scouts plan to sell MOD balloons sometime this month.

Last year, the March of Dimes effort in Glendale brought in a total of more than $1,000.
