day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mitchell spent the weekend here helping their son, Bill Mitchell, redecorate his newly purchased home, and brought with them Betty Mitchell, who had been spending the week at her grandparents home near Salem.

Two deaths of interest to Canyonville citizens were reported this past week. In both cases the deceased have relatives in Canyonville and have visited the area from time to time.

Mrs. Hester Sawyer of Tacoma, Wash., a sister of the late Emmett Moyer, died Jan. 23; and Avery Keller, of Hartman, Colo., a brother of Lee Keller, died Feb. 2.

Alabama Campus Again Quiet After Flare Up

The angry mobs which exploded into numerous acts of violence Monday to win exclusion of a Negro student from University of Alabama classes were missing Tuesday as the school went quietly about its business.

Many Alabama State Highway patrolmen were about the campus with nothing to do as news spread that the university Board of Trustees had excluded Autherine Lucy, 26-year-old Birmingham secretary, "until further notice."

Miss Lucy did not appear on the campus Tuesday morning. Her 9 a.m. class met without incident. A spokesman for her said her future plans are uncertain.
