Lutheran Church Slates Services

Special midweek vesper services will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Corey Street and Military Avenue, during the Lenten season, according to the Rev. Walter Sylwester, pastor of the congregation.

The first Lenten service will be held Ash Wednesday beginning at 7:30 p.m. The choir will sing the selection "Thou Art My Redeemer," by DuBois, with Mrs. James Pemberton directing.

"How Shall I Face Life's Problems?" is the topic of the Lenten meditation for the Ash Wednesday service. It is the first of a series of sermons, all based on portions of Christ's Passion Story, entitled "The Suffering Savior's Answers to Life's Great Questions."

Other topics of this series are: "How Shall I Face My Future?" "Why Do I Suffer?" "What Shall I Do with Jesus?" "How Shall I Face Life's Two Crosses?" "What Must I Do to be Saved?"

All of these services will be held Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m., with the exception of the midweek service in Holy Week. It will be held on Good Friday, March 30, and will be a communion service.

"Yup-it's me, COOP!"

Gary Cooper, one of Hollywood's most durable—and least talkative—stars tells his life story in this week's Post!

Gary tells about his boyhood in Montana—and reveals his real name. He tells you the romantic side of his single days (his wife calls this his "wolfish period"). He discloses little-known facts about his private life, "Yup, family secrets!" And you won't want to miss the personal high lights from his 76 starring roles.

Banquet, Coronation Slated For Thursday At Christian Church

The second annual sweetheart banquet and coronation of the sweetheart of the Bible school of the First Christian Church will be held Thursday evening at First Christian Church.

The banquet will be at 6:30 p.m. Reservations for the banquet may be made by phoning the church. The coronation will be at 7:30 p.m. at which time three of the Sweetheart candidates will be crowned. One will be crowned the "Little Sweetheart," one the "Junior Sweetheart," and the third, "The Sweetheart of the Bible School."

The sweetheart search ended Sunday, but the winning ones will not be announced until the coronation, according to the Rev. Newell Morgan, pastor of the church. Mrs. Newell Morgan is planning the coronation exercises. Mrs. Glen Murdoch is supervising the banquet. Any who wish to attend are invited.

Lutheran Church League To Sponsor Skate Party

Walther League of the St. Johns Lutheran Church of Sutherlin, met with Julianne and Jerry Stefferd as hostesses at the Stefferd home recently.

It was decided that the young people will sponsor a skating party March 13.

After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Lavern Murphy, one of the councilors, was surprised with a beautifully decorated birthday cake by the group honoring her on her birthday. Refreshments were served to 15 members.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, Feb. 20 at the Kenneth Lehman home.

BIBLE CLASS TO MEET

The Mid-week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 824 W. Military Ave., will meet Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. Sylwester, with Mrs. G. Hartman as co-hostess. The session is for all members and friends of the congregation. Persons desiring transportation should call OR 3-3121 or OR 3-7212.

TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Missionary Society of the Melrose Community Church will have a work meeting Wednesday starting at 1 p.m. at the church.

Couple Married 71 Years Gives Happiness Formula

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 93-year-old couple married on St. Valentine's Day 71 years ago Tuesday topped off a gay anniversary party by passing along this happy marriage formula which "can't miss": "Always be kind and considerate, and never, never try to be the boss."

In the words of Abner and Rebecca Braude, who confess they still have their romantic moments, that's about all the secret there is to domestic happiness.

"Of course," said Mrs. Braude in an interview, "there are times when I seem to do all the talking, but I never give Abner the impression that I'm boss."

"You go ahead, Ma," Abner put in. "You've got the gift of gab better than I have. Just keep talking. As for your being bossy, let's say that you can be firm but never bossy."

"Guess I don't need a second invitation to keep talking," Mrs. Braude went on with a hearty laugh, "especially after that great big box of candy Abner got for me." And she showed it off, a whooper of a Valentine gift, bright red and heart-shaped, naturally, and all bound up with ribbons and bows.

"What I mean," Mrs. Braude resumed, "is that a man and wife can make a go of it for as long as you care to say, without fear of serious squabbles or getting on each other's nerves more than the usual little bit, if they'll just play fair, have no secrets, and share the load with the good."

"One of the most important things in the success of our marriage is that Papa and I have never been separated for more than a day or two. Whenever he traveled, I tried to do the same. This talk about absence making the heart grow fonder is weiner-schnitzel. Oh, I know the modern

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"
