FALSE HOPES

How often have you read of a remarkable new remedy which is reported to be a cure for a fatal disease? More frequently than not, these reports are unfounded. Investigation usually reveals the cure to be unsatisfactory for one reason or another. Do not be misled by ill-founded "scientific" news articles. Place confidence in your physician. He is the first to know about new medical discoveries. We are always among the first to stock new medications.

4th Grade Wins Glendale School Poster Contest

Winners in a contest in which each Glendale Grade School pupil made a poster advertising the box social at the high school Feb. 18 were announced this week.

The winning grade among the first four was the fourth, taught by Mrs. William Wunsch. Roy Knigge's sixth grade won among the upper four grades. Second prizes went to the second and sixth grades in the two divisions.

Prizes offered by the Parent-Teachers Assn. were $3 for first and $2 for second. The money was given to the room rather than any individual. An extra prize of $1 was offered by members of the teaching staff for the best poster made by a teacher. This was won by Mrs. Kathryn Hutto of the seventh grade.

Judges for the contest were Supt. James Pate and art teacher Doris Holmes.

Proceeds from the box social will be used by the PTA to purchase dark curtains for the grade school gym, which may be used when educational motion pictures or slides are being shown.

RUSS IGNORE STALIN

LONDON — Moscow Radio ignored Joseph Stalin in heralding the opening of the 20th Soviet Party Congress in Moscow Tuesday—the first session since Stalin's death.

A broadcast of a lead editorial from Pravda, the party organ, confined all its praise to "the great Lenin." There was not a single reference to Stalin.

Boys working on the drive were Bill Sewell, Ernest Hucksby, Mike Mathis, Edwin Curtis, Herbert Hubbard and Victor Vian.

Constable Vincent McElmurry helped the boys.

The Saddle Club netted $111.34 after expenses at their dance Saturday night, held in the grade school gym. The Tyee Mountain Boys furnished the music. This was also a polio benefit.
