

Early Favorites Named In Screen

HOLLYWOOD — Ernest Borgnine, whose acting earned him only $50 a week three years ago, and James Dean, who is dead, emerged Monday among early favorites in what looks like the tightest Oscar race in years.

Christianity Born In Mid-East, Graham Reminds

TOKYO — American evangelist Billy Graham took issue Monday with "the strange idea that Christianity is American or British or European."

"It is not true," the 37-year-old Presbyterian told a news conference. "Christianity was born in the Middle East. Christ was not a Westerner, he could look both East and West at the same time. The church in India is 1,800 years older than America."

Graham said Western missionary movements "are going to have to rethink their positions. More and more leadership is going to have to be in the hands of the local people."

Graham, completing a trip through Asia, asserted, "I don't think a Communist could be a Christian. . . a true Communist says there is no God."

He mentioned that he stopped a parade of Communists in India recently and "as I preached to them, they dropped their clenched fists."

Red Satellites Wary Of Russian Raps At Stalin

VIENNA — European Communists outside Russia still were hesitant Monday to publish and broadcast the attacks on Stalinism made by leading Soviet speakers at the 20th congress of the Soviet Communist Party in Moscow.

The Austrian Communist paper has yet published the sharp attacks on Stalin's policies delivered to the Congress by Anastas I. Mikoyan, a Soviet first deputy premier.

Radio Prague and Rude Pravo, the Czechoslovak Communist Party paper, mentioned Mikoyan's criticism of Stalin only very briefly.

In Paris, L'Humanite, French Communist Party newspaper, carried the story on page four with all direct references to Stalin's name deleted.

No non-Communist newspapers, however, played up Mikoyan's speech blasting Stalin's economic and political theories and calling for their restudy and revision.

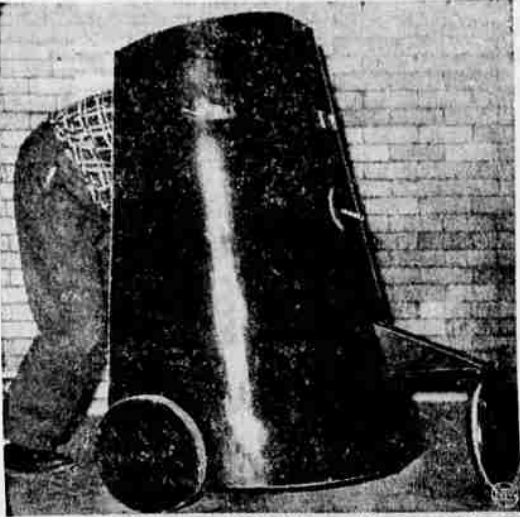

Mikoyan's speech—along with similar attacks by other leaders at the congress—indicate such far-reaching alterations in the Communist line that satellite propagandists apparently feel they need re-schooling before daring to comment.

Floating Red Mines Menace Jap Ferries

HAKODATE, Japan — Floating Communist mines have forced suspension of night ferry service between Japan's Hokkaido and Honshu Islands, officials said Monday. Earlier this month, the U.S. Navy charged Russia, North Korea and Communist China with violating the Geneva Convention of rigging mines to remain afloat after breaking loose from moorings.

DRUMMER BOY—Eleven-year-old Peter Sullivan's desire to become a drummer boy, like those of Civil War days, has been fulfilled. The Collingdale, Pa., youngster made his request to the commanding officer of Pennsylvania's 79th Army Reserve Division at Philadelphia. Request granted, he is shown above giving a snappy salute to Col. Rafael Montilla, Sr., division's unit adviser, after he was sworn in as honorary drummer boy.

DETROIT POLICE GO ARMORED — This modern "Roman chariot" is really a bullet-proof shield mounted on wheels. It's being built for Detroit, Mich., police for use in combating rioting crowds and barricaded gunmen. Policemen crouch behind it, frowns through portholes. The above is a mockup. The real thing is scheduled to be in all precincts in the near future.

VA Prepares Pamphlet To Instruct Veterans
WASHINGTON — The Veterans Administration has prepared a pamphlet designed to help World War II and Korean War veterans avoid "some of the pitfalls of home ownership."

The VA Saturday invited ex-GI's who have bought homes with government-guaranteed loans to pick up free copies of the 22-page booklet, entitled "Pointers for the Veteran Homeowner." Copies are available at all VA offices.

The pamphlet tells veterans of their obligation under terms of GI mortgages and the importance of regular payments. It counsels on how to protect their investment and how to guard against "sharp real estate practices." It also contains advice to veterans who have trouble meeting their payments.

Election Win Narrow For Pro-Western Greek

ATHENS, Greece — Supporters of pro-Western Premier Constantine Karamanlis have won Greece's parliamentary election. But returns Monday showed they have a margin of only eight seats and trailed their Red-tinged opposition in popular votes.

Pro-government newspapers carried jubilant headlines declaring that Communist efforts to break Greece's bonds with the United States had been frustrated.

Opposition papers conceded Karamanlis' majority in Parliament but declared he had been rejected by the popular vote.
