Accident Victim Reported 'Good'

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

Vernie Newton, 23, Azalea, was reported in good condition today after having been hospitalized all week following an auto accident on the old highway 99 near the Glendale junction Feb. 18.

The driver of the car, Gaylord Brickey, 21, Azalea, sustained minor lacerations while his companion, Newton, sustained an arm fracture. Both were taken to Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville for treatment, Brickey having been released immediately.

Bluebirds Seen

In spite of all the bad weather chronicled for this area, this correspondent and others around Canyonville saw a flock of eight or ten bluebirds a few days ago, a herald of spring no doubt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Holcomb spent a recent weekend with the Bert Chapman family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Miles of Ada, Ore., on the Siltcoos Lake, spent two days visiting old friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Davidson and daughter Kay, have rented the Keith McGinnis home in the Gross addition.

Forest Glen Hospital staff meeting scheduled for last Thursday was cancelled because of the bad road conditions.

Mrs. Ralph Goodell, Canyonville city recorder, reported that many informative ideas were presented at the city recorder's meeting held by the League of Oregon Cities in Eugene early in the week.

Ed Hamlin returned to his home in Canyonville after a hospital stay in Roseburg following surgery.

George Montgomery of Gasley Route near Canyonville recently purchased the Douglas Duraclean Rug and Upholstery Cleaner dealership of Douglas County from Frank Addison of Roseburg.

Recent weekend guests at the John Hamlin in Canyonville were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Swift who were enroute home to Lamont, Wash., after attending the Northwest Trapshoot Tournament in Nevada in which Swift won three professional matches including the 20-yard handicap in which he scored 190 per cent.

Swift is Mrs. Hamlin's brother and is visiting other relatives in the county before returning home. When queried about his remarkable score he said it was "just luck."

Salvation Army Board Holds Meeting Friday

The Salvation Army Advisory Board of Roseburg met for a business meeting in the little dining room of the Hotel Rose Friday night under leadership of Howard B. Ott, chairman of the board. The new master manual for advisory boards and used on a National basis, was considered.

Appointment of a nominating committee from the floor and acceptance of new board members were among items of business.

It was decided to postpone the staggering of membership to 1, 2 and 3 year terms, as required by the new manual, to the next board meeting.

Harry G. Rapp, a native son of Roseburg, was a guest visitor at the meeting.

Flood Water Wreaks Havoc In Dixonville

By JEAN RADCLIFFE

The flood waters have wreaked havoc again in South Deer Creek area. Bridges were washed out on the Howard, Waldon and Hatfield ranches.

The Don Neves were isolated at their ranch as the bridge that approaches their property was washed out on one end.

The Al Radcliffes lost their electric pump and pump house and have seen no signs of it as yet.

The approach to the county bridge on Carnes Road was also out.

Recent Guests

Mrs. Leah Stevens and Mrs. Helen Long of Portland were recent guests in the William Bailey and Harlan Melton homes on Melton Road.

Mrs. Corra Smith left last week for Davis, Calif., to visit a few weeks with her sister and family.

The Clyde Restons lost the bridge approaching their ranch on South Deer Creek Road. Several fruit trees were uprooted and washed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Welton and children, Eddie and Susie, motored to Grants Pass to spend a recent weekend visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wise and family.

HUBCAPS STOLEN

Curtis Woodruff complained to state police Saturday that someone stole four hubcaps from his car at Winston, officers said Monday.
