

Eugene Gets Favored Role In Tourney

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Oregon state high school class A-2 basketball tournament opens Tuesday evening at Eugene and just about everyone thinks Eugene will win it.

The final Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters was led for the seventh consecutive week by Eugene, defending state champion. And as in the poll the week before, Franklin and Jefferson of Portland followed as No. 2 and No. 3.

Tournament fans will see only one of the top ten teams in action Tuesday but the other nine will be on the floor in the full day of games Wednesday.

The tournament's opening game at 7:30 p. m. pits Central Catholic, No. 10 in the final poll, against Lincoln of Portland, which was in and out of the top ten much of the season but which wound up unranked. The following game will have two unranked teams, Klamath Falls and McMinnville.

The No. 1 team, Eugene, opens tournament play Wednesday at 9 a. m. against Pendleton, unranked in the final poll but an occasional occupant of a place among the leaders earlier in the season.

Tournament Lineup

This is the way the others in the top ten line up for Wednesday play:

Franklin, No. 2, vs. South Salem, No. 8, in Wednesday morning's second game.

Jefferson, No. 3, vs. Corvallis, No. 7, in Wednesday's second night game.

Medford, No. 4, vs. Beaverton, No. 9, in Wednesday's second afternoon game.

Milton-Freewater, No. 5, vs. Marshfield, No. 6, in Wednesday's first night game.

The only Wednesday game between unranked teams is the 1:45 p. m. meeting of North Salem and Milwaukie.

Ontario, a class A-2 school which won its opening game in that class tournament Monday, nearly got into the top ten, sharing with Klamath Falls the No. 11 spot in the estimation of those voting in the poll.

The final poll standings with season's record and points:

Rank	Team	Points

Buchan Bakers Wallop Albany In AAU Contest

SEATTLE (AP) — The Buchan Bakers, a team of former Washington and Seattle University players, nearly got into the top ten, sharing with Klamath Falls the No. 11 spot in the estimation of those voting in the poll.

The tall Bakers, who won the Western Washington AAU title in playoffs over the weekend, copped the Northwest's only berth in the national tournament which is set over the Albany, Ore., Industrials Monday night.

The Albany team, which included Tony Vlastelica and other players from Oregon State's 1955 Pacific Coast Conference champions, couldn't get untracked against the Bakers.

Seattle pulled away from a 4-4 tie in the early minutes and led, 35-29, at the half.

Dean Parsons of the Bakers took scoring honors with 17 points. Reggie Halligan led Albany with 13 and Vlastelica added 6.
