'The Miracle Of Easter' Sunday Message Topic

The Easter Service of the Dillard Methodist Church will be held Sunday in the Dillard Elementary School auditorium. The children's Sunday School programs will begin at 9:45 a.m. in the Dillard Church.

At the 11 a.m. service, the Rev. R. A. Feenstra will deliver his Easter message "The Miracle of Easter." The choir will offer two anthems under the direction of Mrs. Harold Gilman. Mrs. Robert McCullam will be the soloist for the musical program.

There will be a nursery school during the morning service for preschool children, conducted by Mrs. Jean Sims.

The church will hold its memorial communion service at the church on Good Friday at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Umpqua Sunday School Plans Program, Egg Hunt

The Umpqua Sunday School held a board meeting recently following the Sunday School hour during which plans were completed for Easter Sunday.

A program will be presented at the morning service and a potluck dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. followed by an egg hunt for the children. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

SPECIAL SERVICE SET

A talk on the Oriental Missionary Society will be given by a missionary from Colombia, S.A., in a special service which will be held at the Free Methodist Church Thursday evening.

Pictures of this society, and other fields will be shown during this service.

Canyonville Churches Announce Special Plans For Holy Week Services

Canyonville's five churches have all made special plans to point out the significance of Holy Week according to the needs of each denomination.

Good Friday services will be observed at the Assembly of God, the Gospel Tabernacle, in a candlelight service to portray the Humiliation of Christ, the Crucifixion of Christ and the Burial of Christ, with the young people under the direction of Mrs. C. Brent and Mrs. Robert Shaffer. A candlelight service at the Methodist Church will also be presented on Good Friday with the MYF in charge. The Baptist church joins with the Tri-City Conservative Baptist Church and other churches in the area for a Good Friday service to be held there.

Regular Sabbath day services will be held by the Seventh Day Adventist group at the Methodist Church on Saturday. A color moving picture "I Beheld His Glory" portraying the life of Christ will be held in the Youth Center on Sunday evening sponsored by the Adventists but for the entire community.

Sunrise services Easter Sunday are being planned by the Baptist Church with the Rev. Mark Browning in charge. The time is set for 5:30 a.m. and services will be held near the cross above the church. Movies will be shown in the church in case of rain. The Rev. Mr. Browning will preach again during the 1 a.m. worship hour. Revival services are scheduled to begin Sunday night at the Baptist Church.

The Rev. Meredith Groves, district superintendent, will conduct the morning worship service at the Canyonville Methodist Church at which time there will be baptism of infants and reception of members. An Easter sunset service is planned by the MYF organization of the church.

The members of the Canyonville Church of Christ will be the host congregation for the regular monthly song service of the Churches of Christ of Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford, Winston, Sutherlin and other places on the Lord's Day, April 1, according to Glen Lundy, pastor. A basket lunch will be served at 1:15 p.m. following the regular morning service, the subject of which will be "A New Life." The sing will begin at 2:45 p.m.

At the Gospel Tabernacle, a special program for the children will be held during Sunday School. Communion will be served at the 11 a.m. worship hour and the Rev. A. M. Shaffer will preach.

Each of the five churches in Canyonville extends an invitation to all who wish to attend any or all services.
