LANDMARK MARRED—Fire has destroyed the roof of the Bill Sparks home. It is a Glendale landmark built in the early 1900s when the community was a southern Oregon mining center. (See story, Page 5).

School Budget Discussion Said Not Unique Here

Roseburg's current "discussion" of its school budget is not unique. State Board of Higher Education member George Huggins made that observation Monday in an informal question and answer session following his address at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon forum. He noted that lots of people vote budgets on a matter of cost—taxes. Some school boards may not take citizens into their confidence, he said. The remark was not aimed at any one district.

Eastern Star District Meet Scheduled April 15

A district meeting of the Southern Oregon Assn. of the Order of Eastern Star is scheduled April 15 at the Roseburg Masonic Temple. William T. Evans of Roseburg will preside.

At this meeting, plans will be made for the grand chapter meeting in June.

A potluck dinner will be served at noon. Roseburg members are asked to furnish hot dishes, which will include meat and vegetables.

Logging Operator Faces Charges On Employment

A release from the Portland office of the U. S. Dept. of Labor reports that at least two employment practice charges have been filed against Delmar C. Stiltner, operator of the Lane Mountain Logging Co. of Roseburg.

The first is "wilful failure to pay overtime and other violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act."

Local Toastmistresses Schedule Second Meeting

The international director of Toastmistresses Clubs will be in Roseburg to attend the Tuesday meeting of the Roseburg club slated to begin at 8 p.m. at the Harlequin Club. The director will discuss different phases of Toastmistress training.

On the program will be Mrs. May Bird, Mrs. Fran Holte and Mrs. Ruby Peterson of the Winston-Dillard club. They will be speakers.

Membership in the club is still open. A limit of 30 women is placed on the club membership. Any interested ladies are invited to attend the meeting. For information call Mrs. Gene Raymond OR 2-1890.

The other is "failure to keep payroll records as required by law." The charges were made by the Dept. of Justice on recommendation of the U. S. Dept. of Labor. The criminal information was filed by U.S. Attorney C. E. Luckey in Portland and was based on evidence gathered by investigators of the U. S. Dept. of Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

The information charges Stiltner with failure to pay overtime compensation to 38 employees, although "aware that they were entitled to overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act."

The company supplies logs which are manufactured into lumber and lumber products and shipped in interstate commerce. Employees are therefore covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act.
