Kirk-McGrath Wedding Event Of March 31st

A very pretty wedding took place Saturday afternoon, March 31, at the Yoncalla Gun and Rifle Club, when Miss Dorothy June McGrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGrath of Yoncalla became the bride of Larry Harold Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kirk of Drain. The club room was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of daffodils, jonquils and bridal wreath. The bride was beautiful in a floor-length wedding dress of white taffeta with lace overskirt. The bodice was off-shoulder, and she wore a lace bolero jacket. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls. Instead of a veil she wore a wreath of white bridal roses and freesias. Her bouquet was an old fashioned nosegay of pink roses surrounded with lace and white satin ribbon. Miss Myrna Lee Kirk, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's attendant. She wore a ballerina-length dress of yellow taffeta and lace and a corsage of pink roses and pink and white carnations. Darrell Kirk, brother of the bridegroom was best man. A large reception was held in the clubrooms Saturday evening for about 150 friends and relatives. A four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was first cut by the happy couple, then served by the bride's mother. A buffet supper was served by Mrs. Faye Weber and Mrs. Darlene Cox. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk left immediately after the reception for a short honeymoon to Crescent City and other coastal points. On their return they went to their new home near the parental McGrath home south of Yoncalla. The groom is employed at the Mt. Baldy Lumber Co. north of town. He was graduated from Drain High School with the class of 1954. The bride is a student at Yoncalla High School.
